

Contents

Foreword	9
Switzerland before Confederation	10
1 The Roman Era and the Early Middle Ages	10
2 Medieval Feudal Society	11
3 Towns and Urban Leagues	17
4 Uri and Schwyz: Alpine Lands under Direct Imperial Rule	22
Foundation and Growth of the Swiss Confederation	26
1 Leagues of Cities and Rural Cantons	26
2 Territorial Expansion in the Fifteenth Century	28
3 Conflicts between Town and Country	29
4 The Mercenary System	35
The Reformation in Switzerland	40
1 Protestantism in the Old Confederation	40
2 The Reformation in Western Switzerland	44
3 The Economic Consequences of the Reformation	45
The Ancien Régime	47
1 The Patricians Consolidate Their Power	47
2 The Peasant Revolt of 1653	48
3 Confessional Strife and Neutrality	56
The Helvetic Revolution	59
1 Industrial Expansion in the Eighteenth Century	59
2 Harbingers of the Modern Era	60
3 The Collapse of the Old Confederation	64
4 The Long March to the New Federal State	65

The Triumph of Liberalism and the Birth of the
	Swiss Federal State	70
1	The Liberals' Political Victory	70
2	The Economic Foundations of Liberalism	74
3	The Railway Boom and Liberal Rule	78
The Democratic Movement		82
1	The Challenge to Liberalism	82
2	The Democratic Movement in the Cantons and the Federal Constitutional Revision of 1874	82
3	Catholic Opposition to Liberalism	84
Industrial Expansion and Changing Political Landmarks		86
1	The Agricultural Crisis and Its Structural Consequences	86
2	Development of Major Export Industries	86
3	Economic Associations and Tariff Policy	88
4	The End of the Old Political Alignments	89
The Labour Movement		92
1	Origins	92
2	Trade Unions and the Social-Democratic Party	92
3	The Factory Act and the Limitation of Working Hours	98
The First World War: an Era of Confrontation		99
1	Differences between German- and French-Speaking Switzerland	99
2	Divisions between the Working and Middle Classes	100
3	The General Strike and the Middle-Class Coalition	101
4	Political Controversies in the Early 1920s	102
Economic Depression and Political Crisis		105
1	Economic Development between the Wars	105
2	Political Crisis and Authoritarian Movements	106
3	Switzerland and the Anti-Fascist Resistance	110

The Second World War	114
Switzerland Today	117
1 Slow Integration into the World	117
2 Economic Boom and the Development of the Welfare State	122
3 Concordance, Consumerism and Cold War	126
4 On the Way to Equal Rights for Women	132
5 Social Change and New Movements	133
Appendix: Bibliography	138