

Contents

Joris Geldhof
Foreword.....7

Trevor Maine and Daniel Minch
Liturgy, Theology, and the Crisis of History
Clearing Space for Liturgical Theology.....9

1. Liturgical Spaces: On the Edge of the Sacred and the Secular

Bert Daelemans, S.J.
Fifty Shades of Grey?
Contemporary Churches as Lived Liturgies that Mediate Mysteries 25

Philip J. Rossi, S.J.
Liturgy as Sacramental Mystery
Incarnating Grace in the Space of Wordly Vulnerability..... 44

2. The Liturgical Mediation of the totus Christus

Kevin G. Grove, C.S.C.
The “Whole Christ” and the Mediation of Mystery within the Liturgy 61

Walter Knowles
“Becoming What You See”
Augustin’s Mystagogia of Deification 74

3. The Eucharistic Center of the Liturgical Field

Samuel Goyvaerts
„Das große Sakrament der Vereinigung“
Franz Anton Staudenmaier’s Eucharistic Theology 89

Daniel Minch

Language, Structure, and Sacrament

Reconsidering the Eucharistic Theology of Edward Schillebeeckx..... 98

4. Looking Beyond the West and the Roman Rite

Unnatha Kavuvila

Mediating the Mystery of Forgiveness and Reconciliation

Subukkono, the Service of Peace in the Malankara Rite 123

Elochukwu Uzukwu

Recapturing the Mystery – Captured by the Mystery

African Eucharistic Prayers in the Roman Rite 137

5. Liturgical Commotion in Eastern Europe

Katerina Bauerova

The Mystery of Divine-Human Cooperation in Freedom and Creativity

An Example of Liturgical Life from the Russian Diaspora in France 155

Jitka Jonová

Attempts to Use the Vernacular Language in the Catholic Liturgy

in the Czech Lands in the 1920s 166

6. The Liturgy Enters Society

Exploring its Social Relevance and Existential Value

Thomas M. Kelly

When Liturgy Empowers

Rutilio Grande, S.J. and the Church of El Salvador 185

Christopher McMahon

Cruciform Salvation and Emergent Probability

The Liturgical Significance of Lonergan's Precept 198

Personalia 213