

Contents

Preface

Page v

I	Language learning in the classroom	1
1.1	The task of the language teacher	1
1.2	The role of the teacher	1
1.3	The learners	3
1.4	The needs of the learners	3
1.5	Language learning in the classroom	5
	Discussion	6
	Exercises	7
2	Oral communication	8
2.1	The nature of oral communication	8
2.2	Pedagogical implications	8
2.3	Intelligibility	10
2.4	Oral ability and motivation	10
	Discussion	11
	Exercises	11
3	Listening comprehension	13
3.1	Learning to understand	13
3.2	The nature of the programme	13
3.3	Guidelines for listening comprehension practice	14
3.4	Activities and procedures	15
3.5	Dictation	17
	Discussion	19
	Exercises	19
4	The Presentation stage	20
4.1	The presentation of new material	20
4.2	The dialogue as an instrument for teaching the spoken language	21
4.3	Presenting the dialogue: some approaches contrasted	23

4.4	Presenting the prose passage	26
	Discussion	29
	Exercises	30

5 The Practice stage (1): The use of drills 32

5.1	The needs of the learners	32
5.2	Mechanical drills	33
5.3	Meaningful practice	36
	Discussion	43
	Exercises	44

6 The Practice stage (2): The use of texts 45

6.1	The text as context	45
6.2	Using the prose passage for oral practice	48
6.3	Using the dialogue for oral practice	53
	Discussion	58
	Exercises	58

7 From Practice to Production 59

7.1	Transition	59
7.2	Sample exchanges and micro-dialogues	64
7.3	Guided production	70
	Discussion	76
	Exercises	76

8 The Production stage 78

8.1	General characteristics	78
8.2	Group work	80
8.3	Preparing for and organising discussion	82
8.4	The function of visual aids at the production stage	84
8.5	The 'text' as a stimulus to discussion	92
8.6	Role-playing	93
	Discussion	96
	Exercises	97

9 Language games 99

9.1	The role of games in the learning process	99
9.2	Some examples of language games	101
	Discussion	108
	Exercises	108

10 Oral composition 109

10.1	The nature and purpose of oral composition	109
------	--	-----

10.2	Oral narration	111
10.3	Oral preparation for written composition	113
	Discussion	120
	Exercises	121
11	Play reading	122
11.1	The use and purpose of play reading	122
11.2	Suggested procedure for play reading	123
11.3	An example of a short play: Let the Boy Speak	125
	Discussion	126
	Exercise	127
12	Audio-visual aids to language learning	128
12.1	The place of audio-visual aids	128
12.2	The textbook	128
12.3	The blackboard	129
12.4	The magnetboard	131
12.5	The flannelgraph	133
12.6	Wall pictures	133
12.7	Picture cards	135
12.8	The overhead projector	137
12.9	Filmstrips, slides and films	138
12.10	The tape recorder	139
12.11	The record player	140
	Discussion	140
	Exercises	141
	Select Bibliography	142
A	Books	142
B	Articles	143
	Index	145

Index

- Acting see Play reading and Role playing
- Audio aids 139–40
- record player 140
 - tape recorder 139–40
- Aural comprehension see Listening comprehension
- Blackboard 129–30
- drawing 130
- Chorus work 32–3
- Communication
- language used for 3–5, 21, 41–2, 54–5, 117–18
- Completion drills 39–40
- Composition, oral 109–21
- oral narration 111–13
 - oral preparation for dialogue composition 116–20
 - oral preparation for narrative composition 114–16
- Concepts
- practising 41–2
- Dialogue
- advantages of 21
 - as listening comprehension 15–17 passim
 - at practice stage 53–8
 - at presentation stage 5–6, 23–6
 - at production stage 87–9
 - compared with plays 122–3
 - evaluation criteria 21–3
 - in composition 116–20
 - micro-dialogues 56–8, 60–70, 71–2
- Dictation 17–18
- Discussion 82–4, 89–92
- Dramatisation 94–6
- Drills 32–44
- chorus work 32–3
 - completion 39–40
 - meaningful 36–43
 - mechanical 33–6
 - substitution 34–5
 - transformation 35–6
- Films 17, 138–9
- Filmstrips 138–9
- Flannelgraph 133
- Flashcards see Picture cards
- Free expression
- importance of 78
- Games 75–6, 99–108
- Grading 3–5, 20, 22
- Group work 80–2
- Guided practice 59–70
- Guided production 70–6
- Intelligibility 10
- Language learning 3–6
- and mistakes 36–7, 79
 - and rules 5–6
 - oral fluency 9, 10
- Learners 3
- importance of understanding background 71, 87, 91–2
 - needs of 3–5, 32
 - problems at production stage 78–80
- Learning, stages of 2–3
- Listening comprehension 8–9, 13–19
- activities 15–17
 - difficulties for foreign learner 13
 - nature of 13–14
 - nature of programme 13–15
- Magnetboard 37–8, 131–3
- Manipulation drills see Drills
- Micro-dialogues
- procedures 60–3
 - with picture sets 56–7, 64–7
 - without picture sets 67–70, 71–2

Motivation

- and oral ability 10–11

Oral communication 8–12

- interdependence of skills 9–10
- nature of 8

Oral composition see Composition

Oral narration 111–13

Oral production 9

Overhead projector 137–8

Paired practice 59–60

Picture cards 37, 135–7

Pictures

- for dialogue production 72–4, 87–9, 116–20
- for free expression 85–7, 89–92
- for micro-dialogues 56–7, 64–7
- for narrative composition 114–16

Play reading 122–7

Practice, Guided 59–70

Practice stage 32–58

- drills 32–44
- general characteristics 2
- meaningful drills 36–43
- mechanical drills 33–6
- use of dialogues 53–8
- use of prose passages 48–53
- use of visual aids 37–9

Presentation stage 20–31

- general characteristics 2
- use of dialogues at 5–6, 21–3, 23–6
- use of visual aids at 23–5, 27

Production, Guided 70–6

Production stage 78–98

- activities at 85–96
- general characteristics 2–3, 78
- learners' problems 78–80
- use of dialogues 87–9
- use of visual aids 84–92

Prose passages

- at practice stage 48–53
- contrasted with dialogue 21
- presentation of 26–9

Questions 38–9

- use of 45–8, 48–51
- alternative techniques to 51–3

Recorded materials

- as stimulus to discussion 92–3
- for listening comprehension 15–17

Record player 140

Reproduction exercises see Oral narration

Ripple technique 33

Role playing 56–8, 62, 72–4, 87–9, 93–6

Situations

- classroom 55–6
- imaginary 40–1
- in dialogues 22

Slides 138–9

Songs 17, 92–3

Substitution drills 34–5

Syllabus 5–6

Tape recorder 139–40

Teacher

- role of, general 1–3
- at practice stage 2
- at presentation stage 2
- at production stage 2–3, 81, 82–4
- task of 1

Textbook

- as visual aid 128–9

Texts

- at practice stage 45–58
- at production stage 92

Transformation drills 35–6

Translation 24

Visual aids 128–39

- at practice stage 37–9
- at presentation stage 23–5, 27
- at production stage 84–92
- blackboard 129–30
- films 17, 138–9
- filmstrips 138–9
- flannelgraph 133
- for micro-dialogues 56–8, 60–7
- for oral composition 109–11
- for role playing 72–4, 87–9
- magnetboard 37–8, 131–3
- picture cards 37, 135–7
- slides 138–9
- textbook as visual aid 128–9
- wall pictures 133–5
- with listening comprehension materials 16

Vocabulary

- teaching of 135

Wall pictures 133–5