

Contents

Introduction	8
Future of Europe and the World	9-83
1. The Futures Wheel on European Integration Martin Potůček	9-16
2. Europe - Laboratory of Sustainable Development? Vadim Nikolajew	17-24
3. Approaching Futures, Learning to Live in a Global Cosmopolis: Information, Citizenship and Global Cosmopolitanism Oleg Suša	25-28
4. Creating Knowledge Society in EU: The Art of Asking Right Questions Arnošt Veselý, Jaroslav Kalous	29-43
5. Democracy and Futures. Some Questions for the New Millennium Mika Mannermaa	44-58
6. Future Scenarios for the European Union - Some Impressionistic Notes Jürgen R. Grote	59-67
7. Perspective Thinking of the Czech Elites Pavol Frič	68-83
Futures Studies as a Component of Cognitive Processes	84-129
8. Circular Causality and Path Dependence Theory Mika Aaltonen	84-93
9. Framework Forecasting. Managing Uncertainty and Influencing the Future Peter C. Bishop	94-109
10. Scenario's as a Powerful Tool for Public Policy (Especially after 9/11) Bart van Steenberghe	110-115
11. How to Analyze and Shape the Coming Global Knowledge Society? Peter H. Mettler	116-129

Innovation in Futures Studies Methodology	130-186
12. Futures Lab - An Application of Future Workshop for Regional Strategic Planning and Development Projects Juha Kaskinen, Toni Alhquist, Venla Kinnunen	130-145
13. Science and Technology Roadmapping for Policy Intelligence. Lessons for Future Projects Olivier Da Costa, Mark Boden, Michael Friedewald	146-161
14. The Advantages of Using Casual Layered Analysis for In-Depth Understanding of the Media-Driven Anticipations of the Youth of the Late-Modern Transition Period Bernadett Szél	162-169
15. Diverging Methods in Single Projects. Agence Future: an Example from Futures Research Maya Van Leemput	170-182
16. Toynebee Convector. Order Images from Prague or Brussels in 2035 Maya Van Leemput, Bram Goots	183-186