

Contents

Foreword

Foreword v

Section 1 Introduction 1

- 1.1 Purpose of the course 1
- 1.2 Pronunciation systems 2
- 1.3 Standards of performance 2
- 1.4 The type of English 4
- 1.5 How to use the course 4
- Phonetic symbols 7

Section 2 Vowels 8

- 2.1 Vowel phonemes 8
- 2.2 Long vowels 8
- 2.3 Reduced long vowels 9
- 2.4 Short vowels 10
- 2.5 Comparison: short vowels 10
- 2.6 Comparison: long and short vowels 11
- 2.7 Diphthongs 12
- 2.8 Glides to [ɪ] 12
- 2.9 Glides to [ʊ] 13
- 2.10 Sequences /aɪ, aʊ/ + /ə/ 14
- 2.11 Glides to [ə] 14
- 2.12 Recapitulation: vowels and diphthongs 15

Section 3 Consonants 17

- 3.1 Consonant phonemes 17
- 3.2 Plosives 17
- 3.3 Plosives: place of articulation 18
- 3.4 Plosives: aspiration 18
- 3.5 Plosives: voicing in medial positions 19
- 3.6 Plosives: length of preceding sounds 19
- 3.7 Plosive clusters 20

3.8	Plosive + /m/ or /n/	20
3.9	/t, d/ + /l/	21
3.10	Affricates	21
3.11	Sequences /t + ʃ, t + r, d + r/	22
3.12	Clusters: plosive or affricate + affricate	22
3.13	/tʃ, dʒ/ and /tj, dj/	22
3.14	Fricatives	23
3.15	Fricatives: place of articulation	23
3.16	Fricatives: voicing	23
3.17	Fricatives: length of preceding sounds	24
3.18	Nasals	25
3.19	/l/	26
3.20	Comparison: [l] and [ɫ]	26
3.21	Comparison: [l] and [ɫ]	27
3.22	[ɫ] → [l]	27
3.23	/r/	27
3.24	Comparison: /l/ and /r/	29
3.25	/j/	29
3.26	/w/	30
3.27	Consonant clusters	30
3.28	Consonant assimilation	31

Section 4 Accentuation and rhythm 33

4.1	Accentuation of the word	33
4.2	Accentual patterns: 2-syllable words	34
4.3	Accentual patterns: 3-syllable words	35
4.4	Distinctive accentual patterns: 2-syllable words	36
4.5	Distinctive accentual patterns: 3- or 4-syllable words	36
4.6	Accentual patterns: 4-syllable words	37
4.7	Recapitulation: 2- to 4-syllable words	38
4.8	Accentual patterns: 5- to 8-syllable words	38
4.9	Suffixation and accentuation	38
4.10	Compound words	39
4.11	Compounds and noun phrases	41
4.12	Variation of word accentual patterns	41
4.13	Accentuation in connected speech	42
4.14	Types of rhythmic groups	42
4.15	Weak and strong forms	45
4.16	Words usually weak	46
4.17	Prepositions usually weak	46
4.18	Forms most often weak	47
4.19	Loss of /h/ in weak forms	48

viii Practical course of English pronunciation

4.20 Shortening of vowel in weak forms	49
4.21 Special cases: some, there	49
4.22 Accentuation in connected speech: recapitulation	50

Section 5 Intonation

5.1 Intonation: its nature and function	52
5.2 The accentual form and function	53
5.3 Several changes of pitch direction	54
5.4 Types of nuclear tone	54
5.5 Nucleus on one syllable (with a long vowel)	55
5.6 Nucleus on one syllable (with a short vowel)	55
5.7 Unaccented syllables before the nucleus	56
5.8 Unaccented syllables after the nucleus	56
5.9 Divided fall + rise nucleus	57
5.10 Accented syllables before the nucleus	57
5.11 Falls before the nucleus	58
5.12 Secondary accents between ` and ,	59
5.13 Secondary accents after the nucleus	59
5.14 Sentence-types and attitudinal function	60
5.15 Statements	61
5.16 WH questions	63
5.17 Yes/No questions	65
5.18 Question-tags	67
5.19 Commands, warnings, requests	67
5.20 Exclamations and greetings	69
5.21 Rise-fall nucleus	70
5.22 Rises before the nucleus	71
5.23 Dialogue 1	71
5.24 Dialogue 2	72

Appendix

73