

Contents

Preface	6
Ulf Brunnbauer
Introduction. (Re)Writing History in Southeast Europe.....	9
Valentina Duka
Reflections on the Past in Albania in the 1990s	31
Christian Promitzer
Whose is Bosnia? Post-communist Historiographies in Bosnia and Herzegovina...	54
Daniela Koleva, Ivan Elenkov
Did "the Change" Happen? Post-socialist Historiography in Bulgaria	94
Neven Budak
Post-socialist Historiography in Croatia since 1990	128
Ulf Brunnbauer
Historiography, Myths and the Nation in the Republic of Macedonia.....	165
Šerbo Rastoder
The Development of Historiography in Montenegro, 1989–2001	201
Smaranda Vultur
New Topics, New Tendencies and New Generations of Historians in Romanian Historiography	236
Predrag J. Marković, Miloš Ković, Nataša Milićević
Developments in Serbian Historiography since 1989	277
Ibrahim Gashi
The Development of Kosovar Historiography after the Fall of Communism	317
Oto Luthar
Between Reinterpretation and Revisionism. Rethinking Slovenian Historiography of the 1990s	333
Antonis Liakos
Modern Greek Historiography (1974–2000). The Era of Transition from Dictatorship to Democracy	351
Notes on the Contributors	379