

PART II. POLITICS AND DIPLOMACY*I. Czechoslovak-Soviet Repatriation Negotiations 127

1. Flouting of the Czechoslovak-Soviet Treaty of 8 May 1944 by the Soviet Union in 1945 127
2. Czechoslovak and Soviet Information and Arguments in 1946 137
3. The Enforcement of the Selective Principle 188

II. Screenings and Transports 211

1. The Repatriation Camp in Luisdorf near Odessa 211
2. The Repatriation Camp Sighet in Romania 239
3. The Final Phase of Screening in Luisdorf and Sighet 254
4. Czechoslovak Diplomats in Moscow in Charge of the Repatriation Agenda 263

III. The Official Termination of Repatriation and the Epilogue 275

1. Reaction of Czechoslovak Institutions, Numbers and Reports 275
2. The Repatriation Obligations of the USSR and International Diplomacy 295
3. The Return to Czechoslovakia of Deportees and Prisoners from the USSR after the Official Termination of Repatriation 301
4. Other Dimensions of Repatriation Diplomacy 316

Conclusion 335Appendix

1. Agreement Concerning the Relationship between the Czechoslovak Administration and the Soviet High Command after the Entry of Soviet Troops on Czechoslovak Territory 343
2. The Number of Czechoslovak Citizens Deported and the Number Repatriated at the End of World War II and in the Postwar Period: Estimates in Publications 346
3. Map of Slovakia: Localities from which People Were Deported to the Gulag in 1945 351

---

4. Map of the Soviet Union: Camps to which Czechoslovaks Were Deported	352
5. Commentary on the List of Civilians Deported from the Territory of Czechoslovakia to the USSR at the End of World War II	353
6. Overview of Repatriations to Slovakia According to District (to 31 January 1949)	359
Notes	363
Bibliography, Archival, and Other Sources	387
Index of Names and Places	409