

Contents

Summary Contents	v
Table of Cases	xi
Table of Constitutions	xiii
Table of Statutes	xxi
Table of Treaties and Conventions	xxv
Table of Legal Codes, Decrees and Regulations	xxvii
Preface	xxix

1 HISTORICAL ANALYSIS AND CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN THAI CONSTITUTIONALISM	1
I. Introduction	1
II. Legal and Constitutional History before 1932	2
III. The 1932 Revolution	10
IV. Constitutional Developments Post-war	14
V. The Continuing Struggle for Democratic Constitutionalism	18
VI. The Drafting of the 1997 and 2007 Constitutions	22
VII. Why has the coup/ constitution cycle continued?	26
VIII. Role of the Monarchy and the Military in the Thai Polity	29
IX. Conclusion	33
Further reading	35
2 THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, ELECTIONS AND THE POLITICAL PROCESS	37
I. Introduction	37
II. The Making of the Contemporary Legislature	38
III. The Electoral System	41
IV. Thailand's Two Democracies	46
V. Electoral Malpractice and Political Culture	49
VI. Political Parties: Funding and Regulation	51
VII. The Election Commission of Thailand	57
A. Role of the ECT	57
B. Selection of Commissioners	58

C. Powers and duties of the ECT	60
D. Performance of the ECT	63
VIII. The National Assembly: Procedure and Powers	67
A. Ordinary bills	69
B. Organic law bills	71
C. Money bills	72
D. State administration bills	73
IX. Accountability of the Executive Before the Legislature	74
X. Bicameralism and the Senate	79
XI. Conclusion	81
Further reading	82
 3 THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF GOVERNMENT	 85
I. Introduction	85
II. The Formation and Succession of Governments	86
III. Parliamentary Scrutiny of the Executive	88
IV. Directive Principles as a Constraint on Government	90
V. Thailand's Civil Service	92
A. History	92
B. Modernisation and marketisation under Thaksin	96
C. The contemporary Civil Service	100
VI. Accountability and Thailand's Contracting State	103
A. Public procurement	104
B. Privatisation of State assets	105
VII. Freedom of Information	106
VIII. Anti-corruption Strategies and the Civil Service	108
IX. The Throne and the Armed Forces	111
X. Emergency Powers	113
XI. Conclusion	119
Further reading	120
 4 LOCAL DEMOCRACY, SOUTHERN INSURGENCY AND TERRITORIAL DIVISION OF POWER IN THAILAND	 121
I. Introduction	121
II. Centralisation and the Evolution of the Thai State	123
III. The Structure of Local Government	124
IV. Local Government Finance	127

V.	Decentralisation and Participation	129
A.	Local administration	129
B.	Decentralisation: subsidiarity Thai-style or devolution?	131
C.	Decentralisation: policy initiatives	134
D.	Public participation	135
VI.	Promoting Good Local Governance	139
A.	Elimination of corruption	139
B.	Ethical standards and declaration of assets	141
VII.	The Troubles in Thailand's Southern Provinces	142
VIII.	The South under Thaksin	147
IX.	Devolution for the South?	153
X.	Conclusion	156
	Further reading	157

5 THE CONSTITUTIONAL COURT AND CONSTITUTIONAL REVIEW

		159
I.	Introduction	159
II.	The Constitutional Court Under the 1997 Constitution	161
III.	The Constitutional Court Under the 2007 Constitution	164
IV.	Powers of the Constitutional Court Under the 1997 and 2007 Constitutions	165
V.	Appointments	166
VI.	Gateways	169
VII.	Interpretation	171
VIII.	The Criminal Law, the NACC and the Fight Against Corruption	172
IX.	Thailand's Constitutional Jurisprudence	176
A.	Human rights cases	176
B.	Cases concerning corruption	180
C.	Election cases	182
D.	Cases concerning powers of economic regulation	183
E.	Cases concerning appointment processes	185
F.	Politically sensitive cases in the 2007 Court	186
X.	Conclusion	187
	Further reading	188

6 ADMINISTRATIVE JUSTICE	189
I. Introduction	189
II. The Council of State and the Origins of Administrative Justice	191
III. The Administrative Courts	195
A. The independence of the Administrative Courts	196
B. Characteristics of the Administrative Courts	198
C. The performance of the Administrative Courts and the wider role of administrative law in Thailand	201
D. Prominent Court decisions	202
IV. The Office of the Thai Ombudsman	209
A. Introduction	209
B. Remedial action and the Thai Ombudsmen	212
V. Conclusion	214
Further reading	215
7 HUMAN RIGHTS	217
I. Introduction	217
II. Historical and Cultural Context of Human Rights	218
III. Human Rights Under the 1997 and 2007 Constitutions	222
IV. The National Human Rights Commission	226
V. Human Rights and the Southern Conflict	229
VI. The Broadcast Media, Conflict of Interest and Freedom of Speech	232
VII. The Lèse-Majesté Law	237
A. Current application of lèse-majesté	241
B. Human rights and lèse-majesté	245
VIII. Conclusion	248
Further reading	249
8 CONCLUSION: REFLECTIONS ON THE THAI CONSTITUTIONAL LANDSCAPE	251
Glossary	259
Index	263