

Contents

CHAPTER 1 ♦ Ontogeny of Attachment in Middle Childhood: Conceptualization of Normative Changes Ofra Maysel	1
CHAPTER 2 ♦ Developmental Contextual Considerations of Parent- Child Attachment in the Later Middle Childhood Years Rhonda A. Richardson	24
CHAPTER 3 ♦ Assessing Attachment in Middle Childhood Kathryn A. Kerns, Andrew Schlegelmilch, Theresa A. Morgan, and Michelle M. Abraham	46
CHAPTER 4 ♦ The Attachment Hierarchy in Middle Childhood: Conceptual and Methodological Issues Roger Kobak, Natalie Rosenthal, and Asia Serwik	71
CHAPTER 5 ♦ Dimensions of Attachment in Middle Childhood Jennifer L. Yunger, Brooke C. Corby, and David G. Perry	89
CHAPTER 6 ♦ Attachment in Infancy and in Early and Late Childhood: A Longitudinal Study Massimo Ammaniti, Anna Maria Speranza, and Silvia Fedele	115
CHAPTER 7 ♦ The Construct of Coherence as an Indicator of Attachment Security in Middle Childhood: The Friends and Family Interview Howard Steele and Miriam Steele	137

CHAPTER 8 ♦ Attachment and Friendship Predictors of Psychosocial Functioning in Middle Childhood and the Mediating Roles of Social Support and Self-Worth Cathryn Booth-LaForce, Kenneth H. Rubin, Linda Rose-Krasnor, and Kim B. Burgess	161
CHAPTER 9 ♦ Quality of Attachment at School Age: Relations between Child Attachment Behavior, Psychosocial Functioning, and School Performance Ellen Moss, Diane St-Laurent, Karine Dubois-Comtois, and Chantal Cyr	189
CHAPTER 10 ♦ Perceived Security of Attachment to Mother and Father: Developmental Differences and Relations to Self-Worth and Peer Relationships at School Karine Verschueren and Alfons Marcoen	212
CHAPTER 11 ♦ Examining Relationships between Students and Teachers: A Potential Extension of Attachment Theory? Laura T. Zions	231
CHAPTER 12 ♦ Relationships Past, Present, and Future: Reflections on Attachment in Middle Childhood H. Abigail Raikes and Ross A. Thompson	255
Index	283