

Contents

Forewords.....	11
Introduction.....	13

PART ONE: Why the Transition movement does what it does

Chapter 1: The emergence of an idea: a potted history of Transition	20
Chapter 2: Why Transition initiatives do what they do	27
Chapter 3: Where we might be headed: the power of future scenarios.....	40
Chapter 4: Resilience and localisation	44
Chapter 5: A taste of a powered-down future	54

PART TWO: What the Transition response looks like in practice

Chapter 6: Framing Transition	72
Chapter 7: The story of four Transition initiatives told using ingredients and tools.....	80

PART THREE: How the Transition movement does what it does – ingredients for success

Starting out

1. Coming together as groups	92
2. Inclusion and diversity.....	94
Tools for Transition No.1: Permaculture design.....	98
3. Respectful communication	100
4. Forming an initiating group.....	102
Tools for Transition No.2: Standing up to speak	104
5. Understanding scale	106
6. Measurement	109
Tools for Transition No.3: Transition Training	112
7. Visioning	114
8. Arts and creativity	117
Tools for Transition No.4: Running effective meetings.....	122
9. Awareness raising.....	124
10. Forming working groups	128
Tools for Transition No.5: Forming a legal entity	130
11. Building partnerships	132
12. The evolving structure.....	134
Tools for Transition No.6: Communicating with the media	136
13. Backcasting.....	138
14. Creating a space for inner Transition.....	140

Deepening

1. 'Transition Towers' – having an office, or not?	144
2. Practical manifestations	146
Tools for Transition No.7: Volunteers and volunteering	150
3. The 'Great Reskilling'	152
4. How we communicate.....	155
Tools for Transition No.8: Financing your Transition initiative	158
5. Celebrating	161
6. Celebrate failure	164
7. "How are we doing?"	166

8. Local food initiatives.....	168
9. Momentum	172
10. Ensuring land access	174
Tools for Transition No.9: Supporting each other	179
11. Personal resilience	181
Tools for Transition No.10: Unleashings.....	184
Tools for Transition No.11: Healthy conflict	188
12. Education for Transition	192

Connecting

1. Forming networks of Transition initiatives.....	198
Tools for Transition No.12: Street-by-street behaviour change	201
2. Involving the council.....	204
Tools for Transition No.13: Becoming the media	208
3. Working with local businesses.....	213
Tools for Transition No.14: Energy Resilience Assessment	216
4. Oral histories	218
Tools for Transition No.15: Community brainstorming tools	220
5. Engaging young people	223
Tools for Transition No.16: Meaningful maps.....	226
6. The role of storytelling.....	229
Tools for Transition No.17: Speaking up for Transition	231
7. Pausing for reflection	233

Building

1. Energy Descent Action Plans	235
2. Social enterprise and entrepreneurship	239
3. Scaling up	244
Tools for Transition No.18: Community renewable energy companies	246
4. Strategic local infrastructure	252
Tools for Transition No.19: Tools for plugging the leaks.....	257
5. Appropriate technologies	262
6. Community ownership of assets	264
Tools for Transition No.20: Community-supported farms, bakeries and breweries.....	267
7. Strategic thinking	272
Tools for Transition No.21: Peak oil resolutions	276

Daring to dream

1. Policies for Transition	281
2. A learning network	285
3. Investing in Transition.....	287

Epilogue: Where might all this be going?	290
Appendices.....	293
Notes and references.....	297
Resources	307
Index.....	313