

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
------------------	-----

Notes on Contributors	viii
-----------------------	------

Introduction	1
--------------	---

Gabriella Lazaridis and Khursheed Wadia

Part I Securitisation of Migration

1 The Securitisation of Migration: An Absent Presence? Vicki Squire	19
---	----

2 The Securitisation of European Migration Policies: Perceptions of Threat and Management of Risk Lena Karamanidou	37
---	----

3 Migrants in the Realm of Experts: The Migration- Crime-Terrorist Nexus after 9/11 Mark Maguire	62
---	----

Part II Securitisation and Its Impacts on Migrant and Ethnic Minority Communities

4 Regimes of Insecurity: Women and Immigration Detention in France and Britain Khursheed Wadia	91
---	----

5 Impact and Insecurity: The Securitisation of State Relations with British Muslim Communities Laura Zahra McDonald	119
--	-----

6 The Securitisation of Disadvantaged Communities: The Case of British-Somalis Don Flynn and Awale Olad	142
--	-----

Part III Populist Responses to Securitisation and Migration in a Crisis Europe

7	The Rise of Italian Populism and 'Fascism of the Third Millennium' in the Age of Migration and Security	167
	Emanuele Toscano
8	Identitarian Populism: Securitisation of Migration and the Far Right in Times of Economic Crisis in Greece and the UK	184
	Gabriella Lazaridis and Anna-Maria Konsta
9	Securitisation of Migration and Far Right Populist Othering in Scandinavian Countries	207
	Gabriella Lazaridis and Vasiliki Tsagkroni
	Index	237