

CONTENTS

Method	1
I PEOPLE AND SOCIETY	9
I.1 The Person	10
People in society	10
The nature of the personal	13
Social obligations	16
I.2 Society	22
Collective action	23
Society and social relationships	26
Social structure	30
I.3 Solidarity	37
Solidarity: altruism and responsibility	38
Mutual aid	40
Cohesion and exclusion	48
Social responsibility and social borders	52
I.4 The Moral Community	55
Moral rules	56
The social construction of morality	57
Deviance and control	61
Moral approaches to social action	64
The moral community	66
II WELFARE	71
II.1 The Nature of Welfare	72
Welfare	72

Poverty and exclusion	77
Responding to need	80
II.2 The Preconditions for Welfare	83
Economic development	83
Basic security	86
The structure of rights	88
II.3 Social Protection	94
Social protection	94
The limits of the market	97
The social services	100
The moral basis of welfare provision	104
II.4 Welfare and Redistribution	106
Welfare in society	107
Social justice	111
Inequality	112
Redistribution	115
Redistribution between societies	118
III THE STATE AND WELFARE	121
III.1 The Role of the State	122
The nature of government	122
The state and society	127
Legitimate authority	129
III.2 The Welfare States	133
The state and welfare	134
Securing welfare	136
The provision of welfare	138
The welfare states	144
III.3 Social Policy	151
The promotion of welfare	151
Functions of social policy	154
Legitimate and illegitimate activity	156
III.4 State Action	161
The state and social policy	162
Provision by the state	166
The production of welfare	170
Welfare strategies	173
Assessing social policy	176

Summary of the Argument	178
Afterword	188
Index	191