

Contents

List of contributors	viii
Preface	ix
Part I Introduction	1
1 Sociology, social research and health (S. Taylor)	3
Introduction	3
What is sociology?	3
Social research	6
Doing social research	8
Research methods	13
Theoretical divisions in sociology	19
Sociology applied to health and health care	22
Summary	23
References	24
Further reading	24
2 Approaches to health and illness (S. Taylor)	25
The bio-medical model of health	25
Socio-medical models of health	30
Social aspects of sickness	37
Summary	42
References	43
Further reading	44
Part II Social patterns in health and disease	45
3 Socio-economic inequalities in health (E. Annandale and D. Field)...	47
Introduction	47
Historical background	47
Measuring inequality and health	48
The widening gap in socio-economic health inequalities	49
Explanations for socio-economic health inequalities	53
Relative deprivation and psycho-social stress	61
Addressing socio-economic inequalities	64
Summary	66
References	66
Further reading	68

4	Ethnicity and health (D. Field and K. Blakemore)	69
	Race and ethnicity	69
	Health and illness in minority ethnic communities	74
	Explaining ethnic variations in health and illness	83
	Health services and health care	87
	Summary	90
	References	90
	Further reading	91
5	Gender differences in health (E. Annandale and D. Field)	93
	Gender patterns in mortality	93
	Explaining gender differences in mortality	94
	The narrowing gap in gender mortality	97
	Morbidity: are women really sicker?	102
	Explaining gender patterns in morbidity	104
	Gender, health and social change	107
	Summary	110
	References	110
	Further reading	112
6	Health and disease in old age (D. Field and K. Blakemore)	113
	Older people and the ageing of society	113
	Understanding ageing and health in older people	115
	Older people in contemporary Britain	117
	Chronic illness and disability in old age	120
	Healthy life expectancy	123
	Health care and older people	126
	Summary	131
	References	132
	Further reading	133
	Part III Illness and dying	135
7	Chronic illness and physical disability (D. Field and M.P. Kelly)	137
	Introduction	137
	Approaches to chronic illness and disability	137
	Chronic illness and physical disability in contemporary Britain	140
	Body and identity	143
	Experiencing chronic illness and physical disability	145
	Adjusting to a chronic condition	151
	Care and caring	154
	Summary	157
	References	157
	Further reading	158
8	Mental disorders (S. Taylor and D. Birnbaum-Carmeli)	159
	Approaches to mental disorders	159

Self-harming behaviour	164
Care of the mentally disordered	170
Care or control?	175
Summary	178
References	178
Further reading	179
9 Death and dying (D. Field)	181
Death in contemporary Britain	181
The main places of care	184
Communication and disclosure	192
Bereavement	194
End of life issues	196
Summary	201
References	201
Further reading	203
Part IV Health care	205
10 Health care in contemporary Britain (D. Field and S. Taylor)	207
Social and cultural changes in contemporary societies	207
Pressures on the NHS	210
The organisation of health care	214
The changing culture of health care	220
Summary	226
References	226
Further reading	228
11 Health policy (E. Griggs)	229
Introduction	229
Health policy and the politics of health	229
The NHS: origins and development	234
Changing patterns of work in the NHS	242
Summary	247
References	247
Further reading	248
12 Nurses and nursing (D. Field and E. Annandale)	249
Nursing and the changing NHS	249
Changing roles in nursing	254
Nurses, doctors and patients	257
New roles and the organisation of nursing work	259
Risk and regulation	264
Summary	267
References	267
Further reading	268
Index	269