

CONTENTS

	Page
Part I.
Classical Conceptions - Representation Theory - its Evaluations	7
K. Walter Schwager The Representational Theory of Measurement: An Evaluation	9
Karel Berka Representation Theory - A New Evaluation	23
Valery S. Mes'kov, Konstantin F. Samochvalov Utilitary Measurement Theory	29
Degtjarev H.G. Representative Theory Of Measurements: Are All Possibilities Exhausted?	39
Part II.
Philosophical and Conceptual Problems of Measurement	45
Helmut Metzler Philosophical Foundations of Measurement	47
Hynek Jeřábek Non-traditional Conceptions of Measurement - Historical Sources, Measurement Models and Forms of Measurement	61
Petr Blahuš Latent variable modeling of theoretical concepts as case of measurement	77
Ray Pawson Sociological Evidence: Squaring the Circularity Problem	85
Vitaly T. Cyba The Basis of the Formalisation, Operationalisation and Measurement Theory	99
Gerhard Schünemann Some Remarks on the Dialectical Interaction Mechanism of Intensive and Extensive Magnitudes	107
Part III.
Measurement Method in Models and Applications	115
Boris Z. Doktorov What Can Metrology Do For Sociology ?	117
Hildrun Kretschmer Measurement of Social Stratification in Science	123
Igor Temeš Social and Economic Characteristics for Normative Models	133
S.N. Gonshorek Computational Experiment and the Problem of Measurement in Social Sciences.	139