

CONTENTS

Introduction by Sidney Hook	ix
1. ESSAYS: The Evolutionary Method as Applied to Morality. I. Its Scientific Necessity, 3; The Evolutionary Method as Applied to Morality. II. Its Significance for Conduct, 20; Interpretation of Savage Mind, 39; Academic Freedom, 53; The University of Chicago School of Education, 67; Bulletin of Information: The University of Chicago School of Education, 72; The School as Social Centre, 80	I
2. MISCELLANY: In Remembrance, Francis W. Parker, 97; In Memoriam: Colonel Francis Wayland Parker, 98; Discussion of "What Our Schools Owe to Child Study" by Theodore B. Noss, 102; Memorandum to President Harper on Coeducation, 105; Letter to A. K. Parker on Coeducation, 108	95
3. REVIEWS: Analytical Psychology . A Practical Manual by Lightner Witmer, 119; The World and the Individual , Second Series: Nature, Man, and the Moral Order by Josiah Royce, 120	117
4. Contributions to Dictionary of Philosophy and Psychology	139
5. The Child and the Curriculum	271
6. Studies in Logical Theory	293
7. APPENDIX: "What Our Schools Owe to Child Study" by Theodore B. Noss	379
8. CHECKLIST OF DEWEY'S REFERENCES	383
Index	387