

Contents

About the Author	6
Lord of the Flies (Text and Annotations)
Chapter 1 The Sound of the Shell	7
Chapter 2 Fire on the Mountain	41
Chapter 3 Huts on the Beach	60
Chapter 4 Painted Faces and Long Hair	72
Chapter 5 Beast from Water	95
Chapter 6 Beast from Air	118
Chapter 7 Shadows and Tall Trees	135
Chapter 8 Gift for the Darkness	153
Chapter 9 A View to a Death	177
Chapter 10 The Shell and the Glasses	189
Chapter 11 Castle Rock	206
Chapter 12 Cry of the Hunters	222
Additional Material
1. "Good books are for consideration after, too."	245
2. William Golding: Some quotes	248
3. Robinson Crusoe , The Coral Island and Lord of the Flies
a) Robinson Crusoe as the prototype of the British colonist	249
b) Robinson Crusoe taking possession of the island ...	249
c) The Coral Island and Lord of the Flies : 'An altered moral landscape'	250
d) The Coral Island : 'Our kingdom'	251
e) The Coral Island : Killing the pig	252
4. The kind of novel in which you directly participate	255
5. 'Masterpiece' or 'glaring error'? – Four film reviews	258
6. Lord of the Flies , Open Air Theatre, Regent's Park	262