

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
Defining Attachment
Historic Perspectives
Contemporary Perspectives
Part I: Major Theorists, Their Lives and Work	15
Chapter 1: John Bowlby	17
Suggestions for Further Reading
Chapter 2: Mary Ainsworth	25
Suggestions for Further Reading
Chapter 3: Magda Gerber	35
Suggestions for Further Reading
Chapter 4: John Kennell and Marshall Klaus	41
Suggestions for Further Reading
Chapter 5: T. Berry Brazelton	47
Suggestions for Further Reading
Part II: Impact of Attachment Theory	51
Chapter 6: The Birthing Process and Starting in Care	53
Changes in How We See Babies
Changes in the Birth Process
Supporting Families
Supporting Babies
Discussion Questions
Suggestions for Further Reading

Chapter 7: Infant Care Practices	71
Feeding Practices
Sleeping Practices
ix Holding Supporting Families
Discussion Questions
Suggestions for Further Reading
Chapter 8: Infant Crying	97
Attachment Theory and Infant Crying
Supporting Babies
Supporting Parents
Discussion Questions
Suggestions for Further Reading
Chapter 9: Separation and Stranger Anxiety	111
Attachment Theory and Separation
Supporting Babies
Supporting Parents
Discussion Questions
Suggestions for Further Reading
Chapter 10: Competence and Confidence	121
Attachment Theory, Confidence, and Competence
Supporting Babies
Supporting Families
Attachment Theory and Public Policy
Discussion Questions
Suggestions for Further Reading
Glossary	141
References	143
Index	147