

CONTENTS

Foreword	7
Thorbjørn Jagland
Introduction	9
Gilda Farrell
Preface	13
Massimo L. Salvadori
The idea of progress	27
Massimo L. Salvadori
The economic crisis as a crisis of civilisation	41
Luciano Gallino
Conceiving the social bond and the common good through a refinement of human rights	59
François Flahault
What, if anything, may we mean by “progressive” politics today?	79
Claus Offe
Europe AD 2010: challenges, prospects, tasks	93
Zygmunt Bauman
Relearning progress and faith in the future institutionalisation of plurality	117
Tariq Ramadan
Common assets and environment: the future contribution of consumption to progress and well-being	129
Tim Cooper
How to democratise power? Reflections on the financial crisis	147
Philip Pettit	