Contents

List of figures ix
List of tables x
List of boxes xiii
Preface xiv

1 Emerging India: issues in development 1

Obscurity to prosperity 1
The best of times, the worst of times 5
Development of underdevelopment 8
Rise of "political entrepreneurs" and social tension 14
Dilemma of the classical development model 21
"Catching up": an elusive milestone 33
The plan 38

2 Global trade and investments: opportunities and challenges for India 42

India's exports: an overview 42
Global trends in merchandise flows 44
The new international division of labour 47
Trade in services 62
Special economic zones: the rise of political entrepreneurs 69
External reserves and imbalances 72
Concluding remarks 75

3 Industrial capabilities: research and development as the indicator 77

Introduction 77
The supply-side factors 80
The outcome: patent statistics as summary indicator 83

Creativity to innovation and diffusion: the demand-side factors 88
Profit–wage relations 95
Conclusion 97

4 Economic restructuring: employment and income implications 98

Structural changes: then and now 98
Changes in India: illusions and reality 101
Social division of labour and weightlessness 105
Transformation, a bloated "residual" 109
Concluding remarks 113

5 Agriculture: the genesis of growing vulnerability 115

The world food crisis and India 115
"Look west" policies and Indian agriculture 120
Low growth disorder: inputs and land use pattern 128
Low growth issue of terms of trade 137
Farmers' predicament 144
Conclusion 146

6 Trends in wage and earnings differentials 148

Global restructuring and inequality 148
India: inter-personal distribution 151
Inter-sectoral distribution 158
The future 162

7 Development as governance: more evidence from the social sector 165

Why governance? 165
Health and workers 167
Distribution of "power" 177
Mass education and quality: the hope 181
Governance as accountability 184

8 Epilogue 186

Notes 196
References 207
Index 219