

Table of Contents

Cast of Characters
List of Abbreviations

xi
 xiii

1. Prohibiting Force/Justifying Force	1
1.1 The prohibition on the use of force, politics, and justification	3
1.2 What does it mean to 'matter'?	8
1.3 Authority, legitimacy, discourse	10
1.4 Defining terms: elites, expertise, and 'the public'	13
1.5 A note on method, on history and its uses	15
1.6 The structure of the book	19
2. Theorizing the Politics of Justification	21
2.1 Theoretical perspectives on international law and politics	23
2.2 The domestic impact of international norms: an existing theoretical model	36
2.3 The 'politics of justification'	47
2.4 Mapping discourse	52
2.5 Reflections on theorizing the politics of justification	64
3. The Suez Crisis	66
3.1 Setting the scene: backdrop to the Crisis	70
3.2 Policy discourse	77
3.3 Public discourse	94
3.4 Reflections on the Suez Crisis	123
4. The Iraq War	129
4.1 Historical context	131
4.2 Policy discourse	134
4.3 Public discourse	153
4.4 In the aftermath of war	188
4.5 Reflections on the Iraq War	194
5. Reflections on the Politics of Justification	198
5.1 The public-private split (cf. rhetoric)	200
5.2 The significance of secrecy—hidden motivations	204
5.3 Wider framing and grand narratives (cf. domestic interests)	210
5.4 International influence (cf. socializing forces)	215
5.5 Mediated discourse	223
5.6 Conclusions	241

6. The Distinctive Force of International Law	244
Postscript	251
Bibliography	257
Source material	257
Academic texts	258
Index	271