

CONTENTS

Introduction 1

Part A. IDEOLOGICAL CONFLICT AND SCHOLARLY COMMITMENT

✓ Chapter I. Weber's Generational Rebellion and Maturation 6

- Family Conflicts 7
- Spokesman of a New Political Generation 13
- Nietzsche 22
- Tolstoy and the Two Ethics 25
- The Youth Movement and Advice to the Young 30

Chapter II. "Value-Neutrality" in Germany and the United States 34

- The Meanings of Sociology 37
- The Founding of the German Sociological Association 39
- German Sociology 1918-68 43
- Weber in American Sociology 1945-68 47

Chapter III. Political Critiques 55

- A Sociological Ethic 56
- The Marxist Critique 57
- The Nazi Critique 59
- The Natural-Right Critique 62
- Subjective Intent and Objective Consequences 67

✓ Chapter IV. Ideological and Scholarly

- Approaches to Industrialization 70
- Intellectual Ambivalence 71
- Critiques of Industrial Society 72
- The Division of Labor 74
- Social Norms 77
- A Scholarly Perspective 80
- The Individual and the Organization 82

Chapter V. Sociology and the Distrust of Reason 84

- The Belief in Science 86
- The Romantic Critique 88
- Subjectivism and the Loss of Language 91
- The Rhetoric of Fascism 96
- The Changed Role of Science 100
- The Place of Sociology 103

Part B. COMPARATIVE STUDIES OF AUTHORITY AND LEGITIMATION

Chapter VI. Sociological Typology and Historical Explanation 109

- Weber in the Development Literature 111
- The Developmental versus the Typological Approach 114
- Historical Models and Secular Theories 119

✓ Chapter VII. Bureaucracy 129

- Bureaucratization of Government 133
- Problems of Modern Bureaucracy 144
- Political Control of Public Officials 146
- The Study of Bureaucracy 153

Chapter VIII. Personal Rulership, Patrimonialism, and Empire-Building 156

- Traditionalist Patrimonialism and Personal Rulership 157
- Personal Rulership in Industrialized Countries 160
- Revolutionary Legitimacy and Patrimonial Practice 162
- Personal Rulership and Empire-Building 166

Chapter IX. Charismatic Leadership 170

- Prince Norodom Sihanouk 175
- Jawaharlal Nehru 178
- Kim Il-song 181
- Mao Tse-tung 183

Chapter X. Japan and the Protestant Ethic 188

- Doctrine and Conduct 189
- Implications of Tokugawa Education 192
- The Internalization of Beliefs 201
- The Effects of Cultural Patterns 205

Chapter XI. The Comparative Analysis of Historical Change 207

- Analysis 209
- Change 211

Social Structures	212
Comparison	217

Part C.      PREDECESSORS AND PEERS

✓ Chapter XII.	The Historical Relationship to Marxism	227
	Some Allegations	227
	Political Attitudes of the Young Weber	232
	Quasi-Marxist Influences	234
	Critique and Adaptation of Marxism	239
	Postscript: Weber and Robert Michels on the Socialist Labor Movement	246
Chapter XIII.	The Genesis of the Typological Approach	253
	Historical Laws and the Uses of Analogy	253
	Clear Types and Rules of Experience	257
	From Constitutional Theory to Sociological Typology	260
Chapter XIV.	Jacob Burckhardt	266
	Reason and the Will	267
	Power and Culture	272
	Scholarship and Action	277
Chapter XV.	Two Sociological Traditions	282
	Durkheim and Weber	282
	The Nature of the Discipline	284
	What Is a Social Fact?	286
	Sociology of Religion	291
	Two Foundations of Modern Sociology	297
Chapter XVI.	The Protestant Ethic—Revisited	299
	Earlier Literature	299
	Jellinek and Weber	308

Index	311
-------	-----