Contents

Acknowledgements vii

Introduction 1

1 Aims and resources 11
1.1 Aims 12
1.2 Resources 15
1.3 Needs 18
1.4 Expectations 19

2 Test types 22
2.1 Self-assessment 22
2.2 Teacher assessment 27
2.3 Who does the learner speak to? 28
2.4 The direct interview type 31
2.5 The pre-arranged information gap 32
2.6 Tests where the learner prepares in advance 33
2.7 Mechanical/entirely predictable tests 33
2.8 Recording oral tests 34
2.9 Using the telephone 36
2.10 Sequencing test techniques 37
2.11 Timing and location of tests 39
2.12 On being friendly 42

3 Elicitation techniques 44
3.1 Discussion/conversation 45
3.2 Oral report 47
3.3 Learner–learner joint discussion/decision making 49
3.4 Role-play 51
3.5 Interview 54
3.6 Learner–learner description and re-creation 56
3.7 Form-filling 58
3.8 Making appropriate responses 59
3.9 Question and answer 61
3.10 Reading blank dialogue 64
3.11 Using a picture or picture story 66

3.12 Giving instructions/description/explanation 69
3.13 Precis or re-tell story or text from aural stimulus 71
3.14 Re-telling a story from written stimulus 73
3.15 Reading aloud 76
3.16 Translating/interpreting 79
3.17 Sentence completion from aural or written stimulus 81
3.18 Sentence correction 84
3.19 Sentence transformation 84
3.20 Sentence repetition 86

4 Marking systems 88
4.1 The number of assessors 89
4.2 The selection and training of assessors 90
4.3 Marking recorded oral tests 92
4.4 Marking keys or marking protocols 94
4.5 Mark categories 95
4.6 Weighting 97
4.7 Rating scales 98
4.8 Impression marking 100
4.9 Additive marking 101
4.10 Subtractive marking 102

5 Test evaluation 104
5.1 Face validity 105
5.2 Content validity 106
5.3 Construct validity 106
5.4 Reliability 107
5.5 Concurrent validity 107
5.6 Predictive validity 108

Appendix I Three public oral tests 109

Appendix II Bibliography and further reading 112

Index 116

Index

achievement test, 13
additive marking, 101
aims, 12
appropriate responses, 59
assessors, 7
  number of, 89
  training of, 90
aural stimulus, 71
authentic, 8

best test, 9

categories, mark, 95
communicative, 8
completion,
  of sayings, 83
  of sentences, 81
compression, of test, 35 context, discussion of, 72 continuous assessment, 27 conversation, 45
correction,
  of own errors, 84
  of sentences, 84

decision-making, 49
description, of model, 56 of system, 69
diagnostic test, 13
discourse reference, 82 discussion, 45
duration of test, 40

elicitation techniques, 44
evaluate, 9
expectations, learners', 19 explanation, 69

factor analysis, 4
form-filling, 58
formulaic responses, 61 friendly testing, 42

gapfill, 82
glossary of terms, 6

impression marking, 100
information gap, 32
instructions, for test, 40 giving, as a test, 69 interlocutor, 7
interpreting, 79
interview, 54
interviewer, 7

language laboratory tests, 34 learner, 7
lecture, discussion of, 50 length of test, 40
location of test, 41

map-reading, 58
mark, categories, 95
  weighting, 97
marker, 7
marking,
  additive, 101
  impression, 100
  keys, 94
  subtractive, 102
  systems, 88
mechanical tests, 33
message, passing on, 72 minimal pairs, 77
model of communication, 2 moderation, 7

naming objects, 64
  from pictures, 68
needs, 18
  analysis, 19
notes, speaking from, 74

objective, 8
optional cut-off, 41
oral test, definition, 7

performance criteria, 96 phonetic markers, 77 picture, picture story, 66 ordering pictures, 68
  similar pictures, 67
placement test, 12
precis, 71
preparation for test, 40 proficiency test, 12
psychometrics, 4

question and answer, 61
  formation, 63
  types, 63
questionnaire, 59

rating scales, 98
reading aloud, 76
  blank dialogue, 64
  dialogue, 77
  from table, 78
recording tests, 34
  for marking, 92
re-creation, of model, 56
reliability, 9, 88, 107 repetition, of sentence, 86 report, oral, 47
reporting speech, 85
resources, 15
re-telling story, 71, 73
role-play, 51
  reluctance, 52

sayings, completion of, 83 scales, rating, 98
self-assessment, 22
sentence
  completion, 81
  correction, 84
  repetition, 86
  transformation, 84
sequence of techniques, 37
set texts, 75
spelling aloud, 78
stages, in interview, 55 stimulus, 8
subjective, 8
subtractive marking, 102

teacher assessment, 27
telephone, used in tests, 36 for reporting speech, 85 in role-play, 54
test compression, 35
text completion, 82
themes, summary of, 6
timing of test, 39
transformation, of sentences, 84 translation, 79

unseen texts, 75

validity, 9
  concurrent, 107
  construct, 106
  content, 106
  face, 105
  predictive, 108

written stimulus, 73