

Table of Contents

Dedication	iii
Acknowledgments	v
Foreword Pamela Claire Mordecai	vii
Preface: Talking It Over: Women, Writing and Feminism Carole Boyce Davies and Elaine Savory Fido	ix
Introduction: Women and Literature in the Caribbean: An Overview Carole Boyce Davies and Elaine Savory Fido	1

PART ONE

Woman Consciousness: Righting History and Redefining Identity in Caribbean Literature	25
--	----

Textures of Third World Reality in the Poetry of Four African- Caribbean Women Elaine Savory Fido	29
“Le voyage et l’espace clos”—Island and Journey as Metaphor: Aspects of Woman’s Experience in the Works of Francophone Caribbean Women Novelists Elizabeth Wilson	45

Writing Home: Gender and Heritage in the Works of Afro-Caribbean/American Women Writers Carole Boyce Davies	59
Tradition and Innovation in the Writings of Puerto Rican Women Sandra Messinger Cypess	75
Interior Schisms Dramatised: The Treatment of the "Mad" Woman in the Work of Some Female Caribbean Novelists Evelyn O'Callaghan	89
A-beng: (Re)Calling the Body In(to) Question Lemuel A. Johnson	111
Righting the Calabash: Writing History in the Female Francophone Narrative Clarisse Zimra	143

PART TWO

Constricting and Expanding Spaces: Women in Caribbean Literature 161

"Woman Is A Nation . . ." Women in Caribbean Oral Literature Carole Boyce Davies	165
Women in Jamaican Literature 1900-1950 Rhonda Cobham	195
Wives and Other Victims: Women in the Novels of Roy A.K. Heath Mark A. McWatt	223
Woman as Life or "Spirit of Place". Wilson Harris's Companions of the Day and Night Joyce Stewart	237
Victim and Accuser: Contradictory Roles of Women in Gabriel Garcia Marquez's Cronica de una muerte anunciada Amparo Marmolejo McWatt	249

PART THREE
Caribbean Women Writers.
Redefining Caribbean Literature

A Womanist Vision of the Caribbean. An Interview. Nancy Morejon (With Elaine Savory Fido)	261 265
The Absence of Writing or How I Almost Became a Spy Marlene Nourbese Philip	271
Afro-Jamaican Folk Elements in Brodber's Jane and Louisa Will Soon Come Home Carolyn Cooper	279
This Gift of Metaphor. Symbolic Strategies and the Triumph of Survival in Simone Schwartz-Bart's The Bridge of Beyond Abena P.A. Busia	289
Developing Diaspora Literacy: Allusion in Maryse Condé's Hérémakhonon Vèvè A. Clark	303
The Narrow Enclosure of Motherdom/Martyrdom: A Study of Gatha Randall Barton in Sylvia Wynter's The Hills of Hebron Janice Lee Liddell	321
Finding a Way to Tell It: Methodology and Commitment in Theatre About Women in Barbados and Jamaica Elaine Savory Fido	331
Jamaica Kincaid and the Resistance to Canons Giovanna Covi	345
Afterword: "Beyond Miranda's Meanings: Un/silencing the 'Demonic Ground' of Caliban's 'Woman' " Sylvia Wynter	355
Selected Bibliography of Criticism and Related Works Jeniphier R. Carnegie	373
Notes on Editors and Contributors	395