

Table of Contents

1	Introduction	1
1.1	Chaotics and the Reading of Literary Texts	1
1.2	Chaotics Criticism	33
1.3	The Novels	42
2	Attempts at Cultivating the Chaotic Garden: A Chaotics Reading of Jenny Diski, Rainforest	47
2.1	Mo	51
2.2	The Other Characters	63
3	Unfolding Transparent Things	71
3.1	Hugh Person's Pursuit	75
3.2	The Unpredictable World of Transparent Things	79
3.3	The Techniques and Problems of the Narrator	86
3.4	The Narrative Structure of Transparent Things	90
4	The Inauguration of Silence: John Hawkes's Travesty as Entropic Travel	103
4.1	The Narrator and His Audience	107
4.2	The Fractal World of the Novel	109
4.3	The Narrator's Claim to Control	112
4.4	Design and Debris	118
5	The Chaos of Tristram Shandy: In Quest of Nonlinear Patterns	131
5.1	Tristram's Nonlinear Narrative	137
5.2	Tristram's Unpredictable World	144
5.3	Tristram's Role as Narrator	157
5.4	The Role of the Reader	166
6	Conclusion	169
	Works Cited	177