Contents

List of figures ix
List of tables x
Notes on contributors xi
Acknowledgements xiii

1 The rude, the bad and the ugly: penalising incivilities in Europe 1
NINA PERŠAK

PART I
Regulation of disorder and uncivil behaviour 11

2 Criminalising through the back door: normative grounds and social accounts of incivilities regulation 13
NINA PERŠAK

3 The top-down instruments for governing crime and disorder: what lessons can be drawn from the Italian experience (2007–2011)? 35
MARCO CALARESU

4 Punitive decriminalisation? The repression of political dissent through administrative law and nuisance ordinances in Spain 55
MANUEL MAROTO CALATAYUD

5 Tackling homelessness through criminalisation: the case of Hungary 75
LÉNA PODOLETZ

PART II
Social control and representations of incivilities 93

6 Normalisation of behaviour in public space: the construction and control of 'public nuisance' in Belgium 95
STEFAAN PLEYSIER

7 Understanding uncivil behaviour through urban space and culture 108
ANNA DI RONCO

8 Media representations of incivilities in the British and Flemish press 125
NINA PERŠAK

9 Over-policed? Tackling incivilities and the intersections with migration control 146
JOANNE VAN DER LEUN

PART III
Concluding thoughts 163

10 Dimensions, concerns and effects of addressing uncivil behaviour through punitive law 165
NINA PERŠAK

Index 177