
Contents

Table of Cases	v
Table of Legislation	xvii
Glossary	xxiii
Abbreviations	xxxiii
1 INTRODUCTION	1
I. The significance of EU law	1
II. The aims of this book	1
III. Your approach to studying EU law	2
IV. Finding resources on EU law	3
V. Beginning your studies	3
VI. Conclusions	6
2 THE CREATION OF A EUROPEAN UNION	7
I. The European Communities: why they were created and what do they comprise?	7
II. The development of the European Economic Community (EEC)	10
III. The EU today and in the future	22
3 WHO RUNS THE EU?	25
I. Power sharing in the EU	25
II. The institutional structure of the EU	29
III. Institutional balance, accountability and democracy in the EU	47
IV. Conclusions	50
4 SOURCES OF UNION LAW	53
I. Primary sources of EU law	54
II. Secondary sources of EU law	56

III.	Case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union	64
IV.	General principles of Union law	64
V.	International agreements	69
VI.	Conclusions	69
5	THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN UNION LAW AND NATIONAL LEGAL SYSTEMS	71
I.	The doctrines of direct effect and supremacy	71
II.	Conclusions	84
6	ENFORCING UNION LAW	87
I.	Enforcing European law rights before national courts	88
II.	Preliminary references and rulings	91
III.	Enforcement actions against Member States (Arts 258–260 TFEU)	97
IV.	Actions against EU Institutions: judicial review of the acts and omissions of Union bodies	102
V.	Conclusions	113
7	FREE MOVEMENT OF GOODS	117
I.	The elimination of pecuniary (monetary) barriers to trade	118
II.	The elimination of non-pecuniary barriers to trade	124
III.	Conclusions	139
8	FREE MOVEMENT OF PERSONS	141
I.	Gaining the right to ‘free movement’	142
II.	Limitations on citizens’ rights to free movement	149
III.	Free movement: workers’ rights (Arts 45–48 TFEU)	154
IV.	Freedom of establishment and the provision of services	162
V.	Enforcing rights to free movement	168
9	ASSESSMENT	171
I.	Suggested approaches to coursework	171
II.	Suggested approaches to revision	174
III.	Examination technique	175
	Index	177