

Contents

Fiorella Battaglia, Nikil Mukerji and Julian Nida-Rümelin
Science, technology and responsibility	7
Julian Nida-Rümelin
On the concept of responsibility	13
Nikil Mukerji
Technological progress and responsibility	25
Benedetta Bisol
Ethics and the regulation of technological applications in Europe	37
Georg Marckmann
Ethical assessment of medical technologies – A coherentist methodology	51
Michael Decker
Responsible innovation for adaptive robots	65
Klaus Mainzer
From robotics to cyber-physical systems – Technical options and ethical-legal challenges	87
Sabine Thürmel
Agency and interagency in socio-technical systems	113
Filippo Santoni de Sio
Towards a philosophical defence of legal compatibilism	129
Andrea Bertolini
Robots and liability – Justifying a change in perspective	143

Susanne Beck
Dealing with the diffusion of legal responsibility: the case of robotics	167
Silja Vöneky
Foundations and limits of an "ethicalization" of law	183
Daniel C. Dennett
When HAL kills, who's to blame? Computer ethics	203
List of Contributors	215