

Contents

Federica Lucivero and Anton Vedder Human enhancement: Multidisciplinary analyses of a heated debate	7
Mark Coeckelbergh Enhancement and the vulnerable body: Questioning some philosophical assumptions	15
Anton Vedder Human enhancement on the slab: Dissecting some often used general distinctions and arguments in the ethical debate	27
Bert-Jaap Koops The role of framing and metaphor in the therapy versus enhancement argument	35
Caroline Harnacke Discussing enhancement and disability together	69
Antonio Carnevale and Fiorella Battaglia A 'reflexive' approach to human enhancement: Some philosophical considerations	95
Bas Olthof, Anco Peeters, Kimberly Schelle, and Pim Haselager If you're smart, we'll make you smarter: Applying the reasoning behind the development of honours programmes to other forms of cognitive enhancement	117
Mirjam Schuijff and Frans W.A. Brom The dynamics of citizen deliberation regarding human enhancement in the Netherlands	143

Kevin Warwick and Huma Shah
Selective Deep Brain Stimulation through the use of AI	163
Susanne Beck and Benno Zabel
Legal restrictions of enhancement: New paternalistic tendencies?	177
List of Contributors	201