

Contents

Preface	viii
----------------	------

1	World Anthropologies: Disciplinary Transformations within Systems of Power Gustavo Lins Ribeiro and Arturo Escobar	1
----------	--	---

Part 1: Transnationalism and State Power

2	Reshaping Anthropology: A View from Japan Shinji Yamashita	29
----------	--	----

3	Transformations in Siberian Anthropology: An Insider's Perspective Nikolai Vakhtin	49
----------	--	----

4	In Search of Anthropology in China: A Discipline Caught in a Web of Nation Building, Socialist Capitalism, and Globalization Josephine Smart	69
----------	--	----

5	Mexican Anthropology's Ongoing Search for Identity Esteban Krotz	87
----------	--	----

Part 2: Power and Hegemony in World Anthropologies

6	How Many Centers and Peripheries in Anthropology? A Critical View of France Eduardo P. Archetti	113
----------	---	-----

7	The Production of Knowledge and the Production of Hegemony: Anthropological Theory and Political Struggles in Spain Susana Narotzky	133
8	Anthropology in a Postcolonial Africa: The Survival Debate Paul Nchoji Nkwi	157
 Part 3: Epistemological, Sociological, and Disciplinary Predicaments
9	Generating Nontrivial Knowledge in Awkward Situations: Anthropology in the United Kingdom Eeva Berglund	181
10	The Production of Other Knowledges and Its Tensions: From Andeanist Anthropology to Interculturalidad? Marisol de la Cadena	201
11	A Time and Place beyond and of the Center: Australian Anthropologies in the Process of Becoming Sandy Toussaint	225
12	Official Hegemony and Contesting Pluralisms Shiv Visvanathan	239
 Part 4: From Anthropology Today to World Anthropologies
13	The Pictographics of Tristesse: An Anthropology of Nation Building in the Tropics and Its Aftermath Otávio Velho	261
14	"World Anthropologies": Questions Johannes Fabian	281
References		297
Index		335