

---

Contents

Preface . . . . .	5
Jerzy J. Wiatr
Parliamentarism vs. Presidentialism: Old Debate, New Experiences of Postcommunist States . . . . .	7
Andrej Kurnik
Authoritarian democracy? . . . . .	16
Soňa Szomolányi
Slovakia between Eastern and Central European Ways of Transition . . . . .	24
Attila Ágh
Early and Mature Consolidation in East Central Europe: The Case of Europeanization in Hungary . . . . .	39
Dieter Pésendorfer
Success or Failure – How Far is Eastern Europe in the Process of Capitalist Restoration? . . . . .	56
Darina Malová and Marek Rybář
The Impact of Constitutional Rules on Institutionalization of Democracy in Slovakia. . . . .	68
Peter Učeň
A Decade of Conflict Within Slovak Polity: Party Politics Perspective . . . . .	80
Igor Lukšič
Political Elites from Conflict to Conflict: the Case of Slovenia. . . . .	104
Grigorij Mesežnikov
The 1998 Elections and the Development of the Party System in Slovakia . . .	120
Michal Klíma
A Hidden Silent Grand Coalition . . . . .	135
Jernej Pikalo
Main Actors of Political Change in Slovenia . . . . .	145

---

Jiří Kunc

Parties as the Lonely Protagonists of the Czech Political Transition . . . . . 154

Máté Szabó

From a Police State to a Demonstration Democracy:
Policing Mass Demonstrations in Hungary before, during and after the Regime Change . . . . . 165