

CONTENTS

Preface page xiii

Introduction: images of law 1

- 1 Inter-disciplinarity, the epistemological ideal of incontrovertible foundations, and the problem of praxis 26
- 2 On the concept of law 50
- 3 On constitutions and fragmented orders 75
- 4 Of experts, helpers, and enthusiasts 101
- 5 The power of metaphors and narratives: systems, teleology, evolution, and the issue of the “global community” 135
- 6 Cosmopolitanism, publicity, and the emergence of a “global administrative law” 168
- 7 The politics of rights 200
- 8 The limits and burdens of rights 230
- 9 The bounds of (non)sense 261

Index 292