

Contents

Preface	v
List of Principal Abbreviations and Acronyms	xix
Glossary of Useful Terms	xxi
Chapter 1
The Regime of International Civil Aviation	1
I. Definition of Air Law	1
II. The Development of Air Law	2
A. Origin	2
B. The Paris Convention of 1919	3
C. The Ibero-American and Pan-American Conventions	5
D. The Autonomy of Air Law	5
E. Sources of Air Law	6
F. Impact from Other Fields of Law	7
III. The Law of Treaties	7
A. Treaties as Sources of International Law	7
B. Definition of a Treaty	8
C. The Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties 1969	8
D. Conclusion and Entry into Force	9
IV. Preparation of the Chicago Convention	10
A. The Central Role of Sovereignty in the Air	10
B. The Conclusion of the Chicago Convention	11

V.	Basic Principles	13
A.	Application to Civil Aircraft Only	13
B.	Supervision of Safety	13
C.	Cooperation on the Basis of Equality	13
D.	Territorial Jurisdiction	14
VI.	Scheduled and Non-scheduled Air Traffic	15
VII.	Nationality of Aircraft	17
A.	The Link between State and Aircraft	17
B.	Regulation under the Chicago Convention	17
C.	Multinational Airlines	19
VIII.	Civil and State Aircraft	20
A.	The Distinction between Civil and State Aircraft	20
B.	The Right of Overflight	22
C.	Other Provisions Pertaining to State Aircraft	23
D.	Conventions Regulating State Aircraft	23
E.	Concluding Remarks	25
IX.	The Regulation of Safety and Security	26
A.	The Establishment of Prohibited and Restricted Areas	26
B.	Enhancing Security	28
X.	Dispute Settlement under the Chicago Convention	29
A.	The Role of ICAO	29
B.	Appeal Procedures	30
C.	Cases before the ICAO Council	30
XI.	International Organisations (Worldwide)	32
A.	ICAO (The International Civil Aviation Organisation)	32
1.	Objectives	32
2.	The General Assembly	33
3.	The Council	33
4.	The Air Navigation Commission	34
5.	The Secretariat	35
6.	The Establishment of Standards and Recommended Practices	35
B.	IATA (The International Air Transport Association)	37
C.	Other Organisations	38
XII.	Regional Organisations and Arrangements	39
A.	The European Civil Aviation Conference (ECAC)	39
B.	Eurocontrol	40
1.	Governance of Air Traffic Management	40
2.	Organisation and Functions	40
3.	The Revised Convention	41
4.	The Future of Eurocontrol	42
C.	Other Regional Organisations	42
XIII.	Concluding Remarks	44

Chapter 2 Economic Regulation and Market Access 47

I.	From Closed to Open Airspaces	47
II.	Terms of Bilateral Air Services Agreements	48
III.	From Bermuda I to Open Skies	49
A.	The Bermuda I Agreement	49
B.	Objectives of a Bilateral Air Services Agreement	50
C.	The Distinction between 'Hard' Rights and 'Soft' Rights	51
1.	Traffic Rights	51
2.	Market Behaviour and Commercial Opportunities	52
3.	Mandatory Compliance with National Regulations	53
D.	Market Access: The Freedoms of the Air	53
E.	Charges for the Use of Infrastructure	57
F.	Safety	59
G.	Security	59
H.	Charges and Taxes	61
I.	Settlement of Disagreements	62
1.	Method of Settlement of Disagreements or Disputes	62
2.	The US-France (1964) – Interpretation of 'Near East'	62
3.	US-Italy (1965–67) – on the Interpretation of Cargo/ Mail	63
4.	US-UK (1992) – on Heathrow User Charges	64
J.	Registration	64
K.	Termination	65
IV.	Open Skies Agreements	66
A.	Launching the Open Skies Policy	66
B.	Regional Developments in the Field of Liberalisation of International Air Services	68
V.	The EU-US Agreement on Air Transport (2007/2010)	70
A.	Principal Provisions	70
B.	EU-US Stage II	71
VI.	Inter-Airline Cooperation	72
A.	Arguments for and Constraints to Cooperation	72
B.	Privatisation of Airlines	73
C.	Code Sharing	74
D.	Airline Cooperation under Jurisdictional Examination	75
VII.	Conclusions	76

Chapter 3 The Regulatory Framework of the European Union 79

I.	Scope of EU Law	79
II.	Sources of EU Law	81
A.	Primary EU Legislation	81

	1. The Constitutive Treaties	81
	2. Other Conventions	82
B.	Secondary EU Legislation	83
	1. Regulations	84
	2. Directives	84
	3. Decisions	84
	4. Legislative Procedure	84
III.	EU Legislation in the Field of Air Transport	85
A.	Progressing Liberalisation	85
B.	Internal Market: Licensing, Market Access and Pricing	86
	1. The Regulation of the Internal Market	86
	2. Freedom of Pricing	87
	3. Computerised Reservation Systems	88
C.	Infrastructure	88
	1. Charges for the Provision of Airport Services	88
	2. Slot Allocation	89
	3. The Provision of Ground Handling Services	92
	4. The EU Airport Package of 2011	93
D.	External Relations	93
E.	Competition Rules, Merger Control and State Aid	98
	1. Competition Rules	98
	2. Application to the Airline Sector	99
	3. The External Competence of the European Commission in Air Transport Cases	101
	4. Airline Alliances	102
	5. Merger Control	104
	6. State Aid	107
	7. Concluding Remarks	112
F.	Technical Harmonisation and Safety Oversight	112
	1. The Former Framework for Safety Regulation in Europe	112
	2. The Transition from JAA to EASA	113
	3. The European Aviation Safety Agency	115
	4. Safety of Third Country Aircraft: 'Blacklisting'	117
	5. Concluding Remarks	118
G.	Security	118
	1. The Introduction of Security Measures	118
	2. The Protection of Aviation Security in Relation to Privacy	119
H.	Air Traffic Management – the Single European Sky	120
	1. Purposes	120
	2. The Regulatory and Institutional Framework	121
	3. Governance	122
	4. Principal Instruments and Purposes of the SES Regime	123
	5. Concluding Remarks	124
I.	Environmental Protection	125
	1. Noise Regulation	125

2.	Regulation of Emissions	127
3.	Meteorological Events	130
IV.	Concluding Notes	131

Chapter 4

The Contractual Liability of the Carrier 133

I.	The Coming into Being of the Warsaw System	133
II.	The Warsaw Convention	135
A.	Applicability	135
B.	Documents of Carriage	138
1.	The Passenger Ticket	138
2.	The Baggage Check	141
3.	IATA Conditions	143
4.	The Air Waybill	144
5.	Liability for the Carriage of Goods	147
C.	The Carrier's Liability	150
1.	Scope of Liability	150
2.	Liable Persons	151
3.	The Term "Accident"	153
4.	Compensable Damages	161
5.	Period of Liability: the Period between Embarkation and Disembarkation	163
D.	Exoneration of Liability	166
E.	Unlimited Liability – Wilful Misconduct	169
F.	The Declaration of Value	173
G.	Delay	175
1.	Definition	175
2.	Causes of Delay	176
3.	Scope of Liability: Case Law	177
4.	Compensable Damages	179
5.	Defences of the Carrier	180
6.	Relationship with Overbooking	182
7.	Concluding Notes	184
H.	The Warsaw Convention as a Cause of Action	185
1.	The Independence of the Warsaw Convention in Civil and Common Law	185
2.	The Exclusivity of the Warsaw Convention	186
I.	Procedural Questions	187
1.	Applicable Law	187
2.	Time Limits	188
3.	Other Formalities	189
J.	Successive Carriage	190
1.	Regulation and Application under the Warsaw Convention	190

	2. Successive Carriage in Relation to Code Sharing	192
	3. Concluding Notes	193
K.	Jurisdiction	193
	1. Choice of Forum	193
	2. Choices of Forum as a Matter of Convenience	196
	3. Alternative Proceedings: Mediation and Arbitration	198
III.	The Hague Protocol	199
A.	Reasons for Modernisation of the Warsaw Convention	199
B.	Smaller Amendments	200
C.	Increase of Liability Limits for the Carriage of Passengers	200
D.	Breaking the Limits	201
E.	New Provisions for the Carriage of Baggage and Cargo	205
F.	Concluding Notes	208
IV.	The Montreal Agreement of 1966	208
V.	The Guadalajara Convention	210
A.	Objectives	210
B.	The Distinction between Contractual Carrier and Actual Carrier	212
C.	Case Law	213
D.	Concluding Notes	214
VI.	The Guatemala City Protocol of 1971	214
A.	Reasons for the ICAO initiative	214
B.	Modernisation of provisions of the Warsaw Convention	215
C.	New Rules Concerning Liability	215
D.	The Supplemental Compensation Plan	216
E.	A New Forum for Jurisdiction	216
F.	Status of the Guatemala City Protocol	217
VII.	The Montreal Additional Protocols of 1975	218
	The Warsaw System	219
VIII.	The Montreal Convention of 1999	219
A.	The Objectives: Modernisation and Consolidation	220
B.	Scope	222
C.	Documentation	223
D.	Airline Liability	223
	1. Towards Unlimited Liability for Passenger Claims	223
	2. Terms of Liability	226
	3. The Term 'Accident'	227
	4. Embarkation and Disembarkation	228
	5. Mental Injury	230
	6. Liability for Delay	232
	7. Liability for the Carriage of Baggage	236
	8. Advance Payment to Meet the Immediate Economic Needs	236
	9. Liability in the Context of Code-sharing and Other Arrangements between Carriers	237
	10. Recovery from Third Parties	237

11.	Provisions on the Carriage of Cargo	237
12.	Right of Action – Exclusivity	238
13.	Jurisdiction	240
14.	Entry into Force	243
IX.	EU Legislation on Liability and Insurance	244
A.	Consumer Protection	244
B.	Package Travel	244
C.	Air Carrier Liability	245
D.	Passenger Protection in Cases of Delay, Overbooking and Cancellation	245
E.	EU Rules on Jurisdiction in Relation to Regulation 261/2004	250
X.	Conclusions	250

Chapter 5

Safety of Air Navigation and Accident Investigation 253

I.	Introductory Note	253
II.	Application of Worldwide Standards	254
A.	The Adoption of Standards and Recommended Practices (SARPs)	254
B.	Implementation of SARPs in National Legislation	255
C.	Safety Oversight	256
D.	Enforcement under Bilateral and Other International Agreements	257
E.	Airports (Aerodromes)	259
1.	Annex 14 of ICAO	259
2.	Operation of Airports	259
III.	Technical Regulation on the Operation of Aircraft	260
A.	Aircraft Handling and Automation	260
B.	Air Traffic Control	262
C.	Aircraft Maintenance	264
1.	International Responsibility	264
2.	International Regulation	265
3.	National Regulations regarding Maintenance, Repair and Overhaul of Aircraft	267
IV.	Aviation Personnel	267
A.	The Aircraft Commander	267
1.	Historical Position	267
2.	The ICAO Regime	268
3.	Powers and Duties	268
B.	Other Flying Personnel	269
C.	Flight Duty Times	269
1.	The ICAO Regime	269
2.	European Law	270
3.	Current and Future Developments	271

	D. Ground Personnel	271
V.	Accident Investigation and Prevention	272
	A. Investigation	272
	B. Towards a 'Just Culture'	274
	C. European Measures and Accident Prevention	276
VI.	Concluding Notes	277

Chapter 6 281

Product Liability

I.	Introductory Note	281
II.	The Evolution towards Strict Liability	282
	A. Negligence as a Basis for Claims	282
	B. Adequate Inspection	284
	C. Knowledge	284
	D. Continuing Duty to Warn	285
	E. Strict Liability	286
	F. Crashworthiness	287
III.	The General Aviation Revitalization Act 1994 ("GARA")	288
IV.	Codification of Products Liability Law	289
	A. United States	289
	B. The EC Directive of 1985	290
	1. Scope	290
	2. Defences	291
V.	Concluding Note	291

Chapter 7 293

Surface Damage and Collisions

I.	Damage Caused to Third Parties on the Surface	293
	A. The Coming into Being of the Rome Convention of 1952	293
	B. Preparations for a Revision of the Rome Convention, 1952	294
	C. Post '9/11' Developments: the 2009 ICAO Conventions	295
	D. Principles of the International Conventions	297
	1. Applicability	297
	2. The Liability of the Operator of the Aircraft	299
	3. Damage Caused by an Aircraft	301
	4. The Principle of Risk Liability	301
	5. Causation	302
	6. Exoneration from Liability	304
	7. Limitation of Liability	306
	8. Unlimited Liability	308
	9. Persons Entitled to Claim	309
	10. Security for the Operator's Liability	310

11.	Jurisdiction	311
12.	Limitation of Actions	312
13.	Execution of Judgments	312
14.	Entry into Force	313
II.	Damage Caused by Noise and Sonic Boom	314
A.	International Regulation	314
B.	National Law and Jurisprudence	315
1.	Methods of Compensation	315
2.	France	316
3.	United States	317
4.	Switzerland	320
5.	The United Kingdom	320
6.	Japan	322
III.	Damage Caused by Mid-air Collisions	322
A.	International Regulation	322
B.	Causes and Cases	323
IV.	Concluding Remarks	324

Chapter 8

Insurance 327

I.	Aerospace Insurance in Context	327
A.	Definition	327
B.	Historical Development	328
C.	Nature of Aerospace Cover	329
II.	Compulsory Insurance	329
III.	Parties to the Placement of Insurance	331
A.	Types of Insurers	331
B.	The Role of Brokers	332
C.	Insurance Institutions	332
IV.	Underwriting and the Contract of Insurance	333
A.	The Formation of the Insurance Contract	333
B.	Underwriting Information	334
V.	Types of Insurance	334
A.	General Comments	334
B.	All Risks Cover – AVN 1C	335
1.	Hull Cover	335
2.	Legal Liability	336
3.	Exclusions and Conditions	337
C.	War and Allied Perils	339
VI.	Financial Interests	341
VII.	Reinsurance	342
VIII.	Concluding Note	343

Chapter 9
Rights in Aircraft	345
I. General Introduction	345
II. Recognition of Rights in Aircraft	346
A. Introduction	346
1. A Brief History: Towards the 1948 Geneva Convention	346
2. Towards the 2001 Cape Town Convention	347
B. Conflict of Laws	348
1. Limitations on the Choice of Law	348
2. Conflict of Laws and Rights in Aircraft	349
C. The Geneva Convention of 1948	351
1. Recognition of Certain Rights in Aircraft	351
2. Priority Claims under the Geneva Convention	352
3. Implied Priority Claims	353
4. The Definition of Aircraft	354
5. The Scope of the Convention	355
6. The Record	356
7. The Procedure for Creating Mortgages	357
8. The Attachment of an Aircraft	357
9. The Transfer of a Registration	359
10. Spare Parts	360
11. Applicable Law	361
12. Miscellaneous Provisions	361
D. The 2001 Cape Town Convention and the Aircraft Equipment Protocol	362
1. General Introduction	362
2. Sphere of Application	363
3. Rights Protected by the Cape Town Convention	364
4. Remedies under the Cape Town Convention	366
5. Remedies on Insolvency	369
6. The International Registration System	371
7. Modalities for Registration	371
8. Effects of International Interests	372
9. Assignment and Subrogation	373
10. Jurisdiction	375
11. Conflicts of Laws	376
12. Relationship with other Conventions	377
III. Leasing	378
A. Introduction	378
B. Operational Leasing	378
C. Financial Leasing	379
D. Export Credit Agencies	380
E. Registration of Lessee's Rights	381
IV. Consensual Liens	382
A. Introduction	382

1.	Definition of Lien	382
2.	Creation and Perfection of Consensual Liens	382
V.	Non-consensual Liens	383
A.	Introduction	383
1.	Arrest of Aircraft	383
2.	Retention and Detention Rights	384
B.	Precautionary Arrest of Aircraft	385
1.	General Observations	385
2.	The Rome Convention on Precautionary Arrest of Aircraft of 1933	385
3.	Other Restrictions	387
C.	Arrest in Execution	388
1.	General Observations	388
2.	Public Sale Procedures	388
3.	Rights of Third Parties	389
VI.	Concluding Note	389

Chapter 10

Criminal Air Law

I.	Background	391
A.	The Regulatory Regime	391
B.	Concepts of Jurisdiction	392
C.	Cases Illustrating the Need for a Convention	393
II.	The Tokyo Convention of 1963	394
A.	Scope and Purpose	394
B.	Jurisdiction	395
C.	Definition of the Term 'In Flight'	396
D.	The Powers of the Aircraft Commander	396
E.	Unlawful Seizure of aircraft	398
F.	The Obligations of States	398
G.	Extradition	399
H.	Settlement of Disputes	399
I.	Concluding Note	400
III.	The Hague Convention of 1970	400
A.	The Need for a Convention	400
B.	The Scope of the Convention	401
C.	Jurisdiction	401
D.	Extradition	402
E.	Miscellaneous Provisions	404
F.	Concluding Note	404
IV.	The Montreal Convention of 1971	405
A.	Purpose	405
B.	Scope	405
C.	Jurisdiction	406

D.	Miscellaneous Provisions	406
E.	The Lockerbie Disaster	407
F.	The Airport Protocol of 1988	409
G.	Concluding Note	409
V.	The Beijing Convention and Protocol of 2010	410
A.	Background and Purposes	410
B.	The Beijing Convention of 2010	412
C.	The Beijing Protocol of 2010	412
VI.	The Phenomenon of 'Unruly Passengers'	415
VII.	Concluding Remarks	415
 Selected Bibliography		417
 Index		421