

Brief Contents

List of Boxes	xi
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv
1. Introduction to Environmental Conflict Management	1
2. Collaborative Approaches to Environmental Conflict	11
3. Environmental Law and Policy	23
4. Initiating a Process	41
5. Conflict Assessment	53
6. Design: Stakeholder Process	71
7. Design: Public Involvement Process	91
8. Working With Key Stakeholders	103
9. Policy Development	121
10. Communication Capacity Building	141
11. Implementation and Evaluation	161
12. Sustaining Community Relations	177
Appendix A: Application Case Studies	187
Case Study 1: Sandspit Watershed Committee	187
Case Study 2: Woodpecker County Water Supply	190
Case Study 3: North Umpqua Hydroelectric Relicensing	193
Case Study 4: Cyprinus Lake Phosphorus TMDL	196
Case Study 5: Bowcrest Mountain Ski Resort	200
Case Study 6: Wolf Reintroduction in the State of Minnesota	203
References	205
Index	221
About the Authors	229

Detailed Contents

List of Boxes	xi
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv
1. Introduction to Environmental Conflict Management	1
Conflict and Communication	2
Environmental Conflict: What Makes It Special?	3
Complex Interdisciplinary Issues	4
Multiple Parties With Different Identities, Values, and Goals	4
Diverse Cultures	5
Technical Complexity and Scientific Uncertainty	7
High Public and Political Profile	8
Discrepancy Between Issues and Political Boundaries	8
Environmental Law and Policies	9
Conflict Industry	9
2. Collaborative Approaches to Environmental Conflict	11
The Need for a Collaborative Approach	11
Collaborative Approaches to Environmental Decision Making	13
Is an Adaptive Process	13
Uses the Most Appropriate Science and Technology	14
Is Implementable	14
Incurs Low Transaction Costs	14
Has Appropriate Funding	15
Is Measurable	15
Is Socially Legitimate	15
Required Conditions for a Collaborative Approach	16
Benefits of a Collaborative Approach	18
Are Collaborative Processes Always Appropriate?	20
3. Environmental Law and Policy	23
Brief History of Environmental Law and Policy in Western Society	23
Development of Environmental Law and Policy in the United States	24

Current Environmental Law and Policy in the United States	27
Public Trust Doctrine	27
Administrative Procedure Act of 1946	32
National Environmental Policy Act	33
Endangered Species Act	34
Citizen Suits	36
International Environmental Law and Policy	37
Conclusion	38
4. Initiating a Process	41
Collaborative Process: General Overview	45
Assessment	45
Design	45
Development	46
Implementation	46
Working With a Third-Party Neutral	46
Facilitation	47
Mediation	47
Environmental Case Studies	48
Case Study Application	49
5. Conflict Assessment	53
Assessment Process	54
Who Conducts an Assessment?	54
Assessment Process	55
Case Study Application	68
6. Design: Stakeholder Process	71
Who Designs the Process?	72
Guiding Principles of Design	72
Access	73
Standing	73
Influence	74
Voice Leads to Trust	74
Design Process	75
Develop Project Goals	75
Choose Process Approach	77
Consider Logistics	82
Developing a Stakeholder Plan	85
Case Study Application	88
7. Design: Public Involvement Process	91
Public Involvement: Designing for the Larger Public	91
Types of Public Involvement Activities or Mechanisms	93
Use of Social Media	97
Developing a Public Involvement Plan	99
Conclusion	100
Case Study Application	100

8. Working With Key Stakeholders	103
Group Charter: Goals, Roles, and Rules 104
Goals 104
Roles 105
Ground Rules 106
Process Management 110
Meeting Management and Preparation 111
Meeting Implementation 112
Meeting Follow-Up 117
Case Study Application 118
9. Policy Development	121
Decision-Making Model 121
Negotiation Preparation 122
Problem Definition 125
Education and Information Gathering 127
Development of Options 131
Establishment of Criteria 132
Negotiation of Packaged Deals 133
Ratification of Agreement 138
Case Study Application 138
10. Communication Capacity Building	141
Communication Competency 141
Communication Capacity Building 142
Listening and Acknowledgment 142
Advocating Your View 147
Communicating Your Concerns 148
Question Asking 152
Reframing 153
Conclusion 157
Case Study Application 157
11. Implementation and Evaluation	161
Implementation 161
Factors to Consider 162
Developing Contingency Plans 163
Evaluation 166
Evaluating the Process 167
Unifying Negotiation Framework 167
Evaluating the Results 172
Case Study Application 173
12. Sustaining Community Relations	177
Sustaining Positive Community Relationships 177
Social Capital 178
Free Flow of Information 179
When to Consider Ongoing Engagement 179

Features of Successful Efforts	180
Case Examples	181
Conclusion and Collaborative Process Overview	183
Case Study Application	186

Appendix A: Application Case Studies	187
Case Study 1: Sandspit Watershed Committee	187
Background Information	187
Stakeholders	188
Facts and Data	188
Case Study 2: Woodpecker County Water Supply	190
Background Information	190
Stakeholders	191
Facts and Data	192
Case Study 3: North Umpqua Hydroelectric Relicensing	193
Background Information	193
Stakeholders	193
Facts and Data	195
Case Study 4: Cyprinus Lake Phosphorous Total Maximum Daily Load (TMDL)	196
Background Information	196
Stakeholders	197
Facts and Data	199
Case Study 5: Bowcrest Mountain Ski Resort	200
Background Information	200
Stakeholders	201
Facts and Data	202
Case Study 6: Wolf Reintroduction in the State of Minnesota	203
Background Information	203
Stakeholders	203
Facts and Data	204
References	205
Index	221
About the Authors	229

List of Boxes

Chapter 1

- Considering Culture: Addressing the Material, Symbolic, and Relational Dimensions of Environmental Conflict 6
- Activity: Identify the Characteristics of Environmental Conflict 9

Chapter 2

- Considering Culture: Collaborative Ways to Provide Opportunities for Cultural Connection 17
- Voices From the Field: Collaboration, Even When It's Difficult, by Cathy Humphrey 20

Chapter 3

- Voices From the Field: Piedras Blancas: Salinan and Northern Chumash Consultation and Collaboration, by Terry L. Joslin 39

Chapter 4

- Voices From the Field: Convening With the Condor Club, by Matt T. Cook 49

Chapter 5

- Considering Culture: Using Cultural Dimensions to Improve Assessment 67
- Voices From the Field: The Grand/Neosho River Committee (GNRC), by James Triplet 69

Chapter 6

- Considering Culture: Designing a Two-Tier Stakeholder Process With Culture in Mind 85
- Voices From the Field: Parks and People: Whose Needs Count? The Case of Limpopo National Park, Mozambique, by Nícia Givá 88

Chapter 7

Considering Culture: Creating Opportunities for Cultural Storytelling 96

Considering Culture: Creating Convergence Through Culture 98

Voices From the Field: Successful Public Involvement on a Limited Budget Through Online Media, by Bryant J. Kuechle 101

Chapter 8

Considering Culture: Building and Sustaining Relationships 113

Voices From the Field: The Importance of Developing Trust in a Collaborative Process: Lake Ontario
Ordinance Works, by Sean Kelly, PhD 118

Chapter 9

Activity: Positions Versus Interests 123

Considering Culture: Forming Cultural Alliances and Building Coalitions 136

Voices From the Field: Sustainability and Corporate Responsibility: Rio Tinto, by James Cantrill, PhD 139

Chapter 10

Activity: Listening and Summarizing 145

Considering Culture: High- and Low-Context Cultures 146

Activity: Advocating Your View 147

Activity: Communicating a Concern 149

Considering Culture: Developing Cultural Fluency 150

Activity: Conflict Management and Choice Making 152

Activity: Reframing 156

Voices From the Field: Understanding Cultural Impact:
Uses of the Yellowstone River Cultural Inventory
Reports, by Damon M. Hall 157

Chapter 11

Voices From the Field: Adapting a Process
Based on Evaluation: Dialogue on Allemansrätten, by Lotten Westberg, PhD 173

Chapter 12

Considering Culture: Sustaining Community Relations 182

Voices From the Field: We Are One Team! Expanding
a Turtle Conversation Team to Include the Entire Community, by Michael J. Liles 184