

Table of Contents

List of Abbreviations .....	11
Foreword by Commission Vice President Maroš Šefčovič .....	15
Introduction .....	17
Michele Chang

PART ONE – THE INSTITUTIONAL DIMENSION

The post-Lisbon Treaty Commissioners (2010-2014). Experts or Politicians? .....	25
Eviola Prifti

Technocracy is Dead. Long Live Bureaucracy! On Some Recent Changes to the Civil Service and the European Commission.....	53
Didier Georgakakis

The Creation of a New Portfolio on Climate Action. A Strategic Political and Administrative Reform Within the European Commission? .....	67
Constance Poiré

The Implementation of the Lisbon Treaty through the Reform of the ‘Comitology System’. Self-Empowerment of the European Commission?.....	87
Elisa Molino &amp; Adrien Sellez

The European Commission’s Position in the Post-Lisbon Institutional Balance. Secretariat or Partner to the European Council? .....	123
Olivier Höing &amp; Wolfgang Wessels

PART TWO – THE POLICY DIMENSION

Constructing the Commission’s Six-Pack Proposals. Political Leadership Thwarted? .....	147
Michele Chang

The Commission in Times of Economic Crisis: An Effective Leadership? A Case Study on EU Cohesion Policy &amp; the Governance of Structural Funds.....	171
--	------------

Alexandra Paul

A Mile Wide and an Inch Deep? Energy Solidarity and the European Commission's Leadership post-Lisbon .....	203
---	------------

Camille Kelbel

The New Commission's Role in Freedom, Security and Justice in the Post-Lisbon Context. New Era or Missed Opportunity?.....	229
---	------------

Maylis Labayle

The European Commission and External Relations .....	257
---	------------

Neill Nugent & Mark Rhinard

PART THREE – CONCLUSIONS

The Post-Lisbon European Commission. Between Political Leadership and Policy Management.....	279
---	------------

Jörg Monar

About the Authors .....	297
--------------------------------	------------