

Table of Contents

A Note on the Cover .....	v
Foreword: Beyond the Limits by Timothy Endicott .....	vii
Acknowledgements .....	xi
List of Contributors .....	xv
1. Introduction .....	1
NW Barber, Richard Ekins and Paul Yowell
2. The Limits of Law .....	15
Lord Sumption
3. Sumption's Assumptions .....	27
Martin Loughlin
4. Living Trees or Deadwood: The Interpretive Challenge of the European Convention on Human Rights .....	45
Sandra Fredman
5. Judges, Interpretation and Self-Government .....	67
Lord Hoffmann
6. Judicial Law-Making and the 'Living' Instrumentalisation of the ECHR .....	73
John Finnis
7. The Role of Courts in the Joint Enterprise of Governing .....	121
Aileen Kavanagh
8. Three Wrong Turns in Lord Sumption's Conception of Law and Democracy .....	141
Jeff King
9. The Human Rights Act and 'Coordinate Construction': Towards a 'Parliament Square' Axis for Human Rights? .....	153
Carol Harlow
10. Limits of Law: Reflections from Private and Public Law .....	175
Paul Craig

xiv Table of Contents

11.	The Limits of Lord Sumption: Limited Legal Constitutionalism and the Political Form of the ECHR.....	193
	Richard Bellamy
12.	A Response .....	213
	Lord Sumption
		225
	Index .....	