

Contents

About the Series	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
« Introduction »
Locating Feminist Activism	1
 Part One Community Organizing and Commercial Space
« One »
“Someone or Something Made That a Women’s Bar”	25
Claiming the Nighttime Marketplace
« Two »
“Don’t Steal It, Read It Here”	62
Building Community in the Marketplace
 Part Two Public Assertion and Civic Space
« Three »
“Kind of Like Mecca”	105
Playgrounds, Players, and Women’s Movement
« Four »
Out in Left Field	145
Feminist Movement and Civic Athletic Space

Part Three Politicizing Place and Feminist Institutions

«(Five)»

Finding the Limits of Women's Autonomy 177

Shelters, Health Clinics, and the Practice of Property

«(Six)»

If I Can't Dance Shirtless, It's Not a Revolution 217

Coffeehouses, Clubs, and the Construction of "All Women"

«(Conclusion)»

Recognizing the Subject of Feminist Activism 252

Notes 269

Bibliography 335

Index 357