
CONTENTS

Preface	v
Biographies	xiii

Part I: Introducing the Dialogue Between Legal Theory and Legal History

1. Legal Theory and Legal History: Prospects for Dialogue	3
Michael Lobban
2. Beyond Universality and Particularity, Necessity and Contingency: On Collaboration Between Legal Theory and Legal History	22
Maks Del Mar
3. Legal Theory and Legal History: A View from Anthropology	39
Fernanda Pirie
4. Legal Theory and Legal History: Which Legal Theory?	45
Sionaidh Douglas-Scott

Part II: Methodology and Historiography

5. Historicism and Materiality in Legal Theory	57
Christopher Tomlins
6. Legal Consciousness: A Metahistory	84
Jonathan Gorman
7. Modelling Law Diachronically: Temporal Variability in Legal Theory	108
Maks Del Mar
8. Is Comparative Law Necessary for Legal Theory?	127
John Bell

Part III: The History of Theory

9. Reading Juristic Theories In and Beyond Historical Context: The Case of Lundstedt's Swedish Legal Realism	149
Roger Cotterrell

10. Legal Realism and Natural Law.....	167
Dan Priel and Charles Barzun
11. The Role of Rules: Legal Maxims in Early-modern Common Law Principle and Practice.....	188
Ian Williams
12. Theory in History: Positivism, Natural Law and Conjectural History in Seventeenth- and Eighteenth-century English Legal Thought.....	206
Michael Lobban
Part IV: Uses and Limits of Theory in History
13. Legal History and Legal Theory Shaking Hands: Towards a Gentleman's Agreement About a Definition of the State	233
Jean-Louis Halpérin and Pierre Brunet
14. Law, Self-interest, and the Smithian Conscience	250
Joshua Getzler
15. The Practical Dimension of Legal Reasoning	284
Stephen Waddams
16. Corrective Justice—An Idea Whose Time Has Gone?	305
Steve Hedley
Afterword
17. How History Bears on Jurisprudence.....	329
Brian Z Tamanaha
 Index	341