

CONTENTS

PREFACE	ix
1 The idea of citizenship	1
A conceptual overview	3
A historical overview	14
Citizenship and modernity	21
2 Citizenship and the nation-state	29
The French Revolution, modernity and citizenship	30
The problem of the nation-state	35
Contemporary dilemmas of state membership	45
3 Rights and responsibilities	55
The limits of liberal rights	56
Arguments for citizenship responsibilities	69
Beyond false dichotomies: the need for holistic citizenship	73
4 Pluralism and difference	83
Arguments for group rights	84
Against a politics of difference	90
Citizenship, equality and difference	98

5 Enhancing citizenship	106
Citizenship and political community	107
Rethinking social rights	116
Intimate citizenship	124
6 Citizenship in a global age	132
Globalisation and citizenship	134
Human rights and citizenship	139
Citizenship and governance beyond the state	145
7 Conclusion	162
The development of citizenship: a summary	162
A postmodern citizenship?	165
The future of citizenship	168
BIBLIOGRAPHY	172
INDEX	181