

Contents

Preface	xi
1. Introduction: NATO's Post-Cold War Transformation	1
NATO's Origins and Cold War Policies	3
NATO's Transformation in the 1990s	8
NATO's Main Contemporary Missions	11
Interdependence and Balance among the Three Core Tasks	16
NATO's Ability to Act Despite Internal Disputes	18
2. Collective Defense and the Evolving Security Environment	31
Russia as a Potential Security Challenge	32
NATO's Broader Security Environment	39
Nontraditional Security Challenges	43
Cyber Security	44
Space Operations	47
Energy Security	50
Terrorism	53
WMD Proliferation	59
3. Deterrence and Defense Posture	75
Conventional Military Forces	77
NATO's Nuclear Posture and U.S. Extended Deterrence	88
Nuclear Deterrence Policy	94
Missile Defense	98
Expansive Approaches to Collective Defense	106
4. Crisis Management in the Balkans and Afghanistan	123
NATO's Engagement in the Balkans	125
NATO's Engagement in Afghanistan	135
5. Crisis Management Elsewhere	163
NATO and Iraq	163
NATO and the African Union	166
NATO and Counterpiracy Operations	167
Ad Hoc "Toolbox" Operations	168
NATO Air Policing	169
NATO and Libya	170
Libya in Comparison with Afghanistan and the Balkans	178
Implications of the Libya Intervention for NATO	179
Capabilities for Crisis Management and Collective Defense	183

Crisis Management in Support of Collective Defense	185
Collective Defense Arising from Crisis Management	188
6. Cooperative Security and Partnerships	199
NATO's Partnerships	200
Efforts to Revitalize NATO's Partnership Policies	210
Comparing NATO's Multilateral Partnership Frameworks	214
Prospects for Further Reforms	217
NATO-Russia Relations	219
NATO-Ukraine Relations	227
NATO-Georgia Relations	231
7. International Organizations and the "Comprehensive Approach"	245
NATO and the United Nations	248
NATO and the European Union	253
NATO and the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe	261
NATO's "Comprehensive Approach"	267
8. NATO Enlargement	281
Multiple Rationales for Enlargement	281
The Western Balkans and NATO Enlargement	285
Russia and NATO Enlargement	288
Georgia's Candidacy for NATO Membership	293
Finland and Sweden as Possible Membership Candidates	297
9. Arms Control, Nonproliferation, and Disarmament	309
NATO and Cold War Arms Control	310
NATO and Post-Cold War Arms Control	313
WMD Nonproliferation	316
Nuclear Disarmament	318
Conventional Arms Control in Europe	323
Reducing Numbers of Nuclear Weapons in Europe	326
10. Constraints and Prospects	343
Challenges within the Alliance	344
Recalcitrant Realities outside the Alliance	354
Vision and Political Will	362
Envoi	376
Index	385