

CONTENTS

	Introduction	vii
part one	THE PROBLEM OF POVERTY	1
one	THE ORIGINS OF POVERTY	3
	From feudalism to capitalism; the creation of wage labour; the growth of the state; 'reduced to mere hirelings'; poverty and wage labour; the wage system and poverty; poverty and the family wage; 'civilised' poverty
two	THE RELIEF OF POVERTY	29
	The battle of ideas; the 1834 Poor Law Report; a moral economy; the right to relief; the laws of nature; the principle of less eligibility; the problem of centralization; the interventionist state.
part two	UNEMPLOYMENT AND SOCIAL REFORM 1880-1914	57
three	THE PROBLEM OF UNEMPLOYMENT	59
	A note on self-help; the creation of unemployment; a stirring of revolt; social investigation; the problem of imperialism; the reserve armies of labour; the problem of casual labour; the problem of efficiency; unemployment and the working class

four	SOCIAL REFORM	90
	The Poor Law; the reform of charity; relief work; the role of experts; Fabianism and eugenics; emigration and labour colonies; the Unemployed Workman Act; liberalism and social reform; the role of the Labour Party; two forms of imperialism; socialism and social reform; social reform and the working class; administrative re-form; labour exchanges and the reserve army of labour; national insurance; the limits of reform
part three	THE WELFARE STATE	141
five	THE RISE AND FALL OF SOCIAL DEMOCRACY	143
	The politics of growth; the Beveridge 'revolution'; women and children last; social security and democracy; the elusiveness of power; maintaining the incentive to work; divide and rule; the impasse of social democracy
six	THATCHERISM AND THE NEW CAPITALISM	176
	The attack on expectations; economic restructuring and social security; benefits as a political weapon; rights or discretion?; the 1986 Social Security Act; a continuing programme; the two-thirds society
	Bibliography	201
	Index	209