

Contents

Introduction to the Classic Edition	vii
Introduction: Some Surprises for Psychologists	1
1. Concept Structuring Systems in Language Leonard Talmy	15
2. Discourse and Grammar John W. Du Bois	47
3. Human Cognition and the Elaboration of Events: Some Universal Conceptual Categories Suzanne Kemmer	89
4. Social Interaction and Grammar Cecilia E. Ford, Barbara A. Fox, and Sandra A. Thompson	119
5. Cognitive Processes in Grammaticalization Joan Bybee	145
6. Pronouns and Point of View: Cognitive Principles of Coreference Karen van Hoek	169
7. On Explaining Language Universals Bernard Comrie	195
8. The Geometry of Grammatical Meaning: Semantic Maps and Cross-Linguistic Comparison Martin Haspelmath	211

9.	Regularity and Idiomaticity in Grammatical Constructions: The Case of Let Alone	243
	Charles J. Fillmore, Paul Kay, and Mary Catherine O'Connor
	Author Index	271
	Subject Index	277