

Contents

LIST OF FIGURES	xii
LIST OF TABLES	xvi
LIST OF BOXES	xix
PREFACE	xxi
ABBREVIATIONS	xxiii
1 Introduction to contemporary European politics	1
The rationale of the book: the emergence of new European politics	2
A comparative approach: cross-country differences, similarities and convergences	3
Reducing complexity through the use of regional clusters	5
The 'great transformation' of the late twentieth century	11
The growing importance of the European integration process	16
Constitutions and constitutionalism	17
The structure of this book	23
Selected references	24
Questions for revision	24
2 The historical development of European politics	25
The emergence of European politics in the Late Middle Ages	26
The Reformation, wars of religion and the European state system	29
The French Revolution and the emergence of the national state	35

CONTENTS

The Democratic Revolution of 1848 and the rise of liberal democracy	38
Industrialisation, the proletariat and the social question	46
The new imperialism, new militarism and the First World War (1914–18)	49
The Russian Revolution and the expansion of communism (1917–89)	52
The politics of totalitarianism: fascism, national socialism and Stalinism	53
Reconstruction, consensus and the division of Europe after 1945	57
Jean Monnet, Robert Schuman and the beginnings of European integration	61
The oil crisis of the 1970s and the silent post-materialist revolution	64
The Fall of the Berlin Wall and the emergence of a new European era	67
European integration and Euro-scepticism	72
Conclusions: European politics as a kaleidoscope of experiment, innovation and tradition	74
Suggested reading	74
Questions for revision	75
3 The transformation of European politics	76
Towards a new understanding of European politics	77
Stein Rokkan's theory of European politics	78
The postmodernisation of European politics: the society of individuals and the impact of the new media	95
Conclusions: the great transformation of the late twentieth century	135
Suggested reading	136
Questions for revision	137
4 National politics and the European Union	138
The transformation of the European Union since 1985	139
National governments and parliaments in the European Union multilevel governance system	147
Europeanisation of national politics and domestication of European politics	158

Conclusions: the intertwinedness of the European Union multilevel governance system	166
Suggested reading	167
Questions for revision	168
5 Government in multilevel Europe	169
A two-headed executive: the European model	170
The government: the centre of executive power	177
Conclusions: government in Europe: majoritarian versus consensus politics	198
Suggested reading	198
Questions for revision	199
6 The diversity of parliamentarianism in multilevel Europe	200
The main functions of parliament in postmodern European political systems: patterns of parliamentarianism in Europe	201
New democratic parliaments in Central and Eastern Europe	219
Conclusions: parliament as a moderating institution	230
Suggested reading	231
Questions for revision	231
7 Towards the European public administrative space? The Europeanisation of national governance	232
The introduction of public management principles	233
National patterns of public administration	236
Towards a European administrative space: rhetoric and reality	273
Conclusions: towards a European administrative space?	276
Suggested reading	277
Questions for revision	278
8 Judicial power in multilevel Europe	279
Introduction	280
Patterns of judicial power in Europe	282
The judicialisation of politics and the politicisation of the judiciary: a constitutional review, European-style	294
The European dimension: the growing impact on national legislation	298
Conclusions: the Europeanisation of judicial power	303
Suggested reading	304
Questions for revision	304

9	Regional and local government in multilevel Europe	305
	Decentralisation in Europe	306
	Patterns of territorial administration in Europe	310
	The European dimension of subnational government	335
	Conclusions: towards a Europe of the regions	339
	Suggested reading	339
	Questions for revision	340
10	Political parties in Europe	341
	The Americanisation of European parties and party systems	342
	The transformation of political parties: from cadre to cartel parties	346
	The decline of party membership	353
	The importance of public funding for political parties	354
	The main party families	355
	Conclusions: the Americanisation of European politics	392
	Suggested reading	392
	Questions for revision	394
11	Electoral and party systems	395
	The impact of electoral systems on party systems	396
	Party systems in Europe	406
	Multilevel electoral arenas	477
	Conclusions: the intertwinedness of electoral and party systems	480
	Suggested reading	483
	Questions for revision	484
12	Interest groups and systems of interest intermediation	485
	Patterns of interest intermediation and industrial relations at national level	487
	Towards a multilevel system of interest intermediation	511
	Conclusions: from national systems of interest intermediation to a multilevel EU governance system	515
	Suggested reading	516
	Questions for revision	518

13	Convergence of national policy styles: the role of the European Union	519
	Introduction	520
	The growing importance of European public policy	521
	Europeanisation and policy convergence in EU member states	525
	Conclusions: the Europeanisation of national public policy	550
	Suggested reading	551
	Questions for revision	552
14	The intertwinedness of national and European foreign policy	553
	Patterns of national foreign policy	554
	The consolidation of Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP)	564
	Securing the borders of the European Union: the emergence of the European neighbourhood policy	576
	The European Union and the wider world	579
	Conclusions: towards global and continental–regional governance	581
	Suggested reading	581
	Questions for revision	583
15	Conclusions: reinventing Europe	584
	Learning from each other: diversity and convergence of European politics	585
	Mediatisation and electoral markets in Europe	585
	A multilevel governance system: European, national, regional and local	587
	Flexible means of communication: positive and critical issues of e-government and e-democracy	587
	Towards multicultural societies? The challenge of immigration	588
	The unification of the continent as an historical milestone: towards a region of democratic peace and stability	588
	Conclusions: the rise of post-sovereign European politics	591
	REFERENCES	592
	INDEX	643