

Contents

---

Preface	ix
1 A Basis for Drama	1
2 Two Kinds of Dramatic Activity in Classroom Drama	11
3 Teacher as Fellow Artist – Working from ‘Inside the Drama’	31
4 Teacher as Fellow Artist – Working from ‘Outside the Drama’	52
5 Planning a Sequence of Drama Experiences	65
Robin Hood with nine/ten-year olds and adults	70
Croft with older adolescents and adults	77
The Nativity with six/seven-year olds	81
The ‘Vegetable’ with older adolescents	83
Joseph and his Brethren with ten/eleven-year olds	88
The Silver Sword with twelve/thirteen-year olds	93
Skin Deep with fourteen/fifteen-year olds	94
The Zoo with nine/ten-year olds	97
Heroes with six/seven-year olds	99
The Restaurant with eight to ten-year olds	105
6 Aims and Objectives	108
7 Assessment	128
Bibliography	145
Index	147

Gavin Bolton March 1991