

Contents

Introduction

1 The classroom

- 1 Different classroom layouts
- 2 Setting up the room for specific activities
- 3 Avoiding chaos when rearranging the room
- 4 Effective seating arrangements
- 5 Varying teacher positions
- 6 Using a limited space
- 7 Sharing classrooms
- 8 Improving the classroom environment
- 9 Design and purchasing decisions

2 The teacher

- 1 Being yourself
- 2 Establishing and maintaining rapport
- 3 Ways of listening
- 4 Turning the volume up and down
- 5 Finding the right voice tone
- 6 Varying the quantity of your control
- 7 Gestures and facial expressions
- 8 The teacher's language
- 9 Using intuition
- 10 The teacher as researcher

3 The learners

- 1 Learning names
- 2 Helping the group to work together
- 3 Mixed-level classes
- 4 Large classes
- 5 Individuals
- 6 A learner-centred approach

Key teacher interventions	1	246
Being supportive	1	246
Asserting authority	2	251
Giving instructions	3	252
Telling	4	262
Eliding	5	262
Questioning	6	270
Checking learning and understanding	7	272
Being catalytic	8	282
Structuring and signposting	9	282
Giving encouragement	10	284
Giving difficult messages	11	287
Permitting emotion	12	290
Being unhelpful	13	293
Vanishing	14	296
Facilitating interaction		33
Whole-class work		36
Encouraging students to speak	1	36
Researching interaction	2	40
Reducing unnecessary teacher talk	3	44
Should students put up their hand?	4	48
Training students to listen to each other	5	50
Withholding validation of student work	6	52
Pairs and groups		66
Making pairs and groups	7	71
Keeping pair work and group work interesting	8	74
Encouraging quieter learners to speak in pairs or groups	9	76
Monitoring pair and group work	10	76
Encouraging students to use English	11	82
Allocating group-participant roles	12	88
Justifying pair and group work to students	13	96
The world		100
Interaction beyond the classroom walls	14	108
Establishing and maintaining appropriate behaviour		6
Setting the stage for positive behaviour	1	231
Dealing with small disruptions	2	236
Serious discipline issues	3	241

4	Key teacher interventions	119
1	Being supportive	120
2	Asserting authority	123
3	Giving instructions	128
4	Telling	134
5	Eliciting	139
6	Questioning	146
7	Checking learning and understanding	152
8	Being catalytic	154
9	Structuring and signposting	157
10	Giving encouragement, feedback and praise	163
11	Giving difficult messages	167
12	Permitting emotion	169
13	Being unhelpful	173
14	Vanishing	176
5	Facilitating interaction	179
	Whole-class work	179
1	Encouraging students to speak	179
2	Researching interaction	183
3	Reducing unnecessary teacher talk	185
4	Should students put up their hands?	188
5	Training students to listen to each other	192
6	Withholding validation of student answers	196
	Pairs and groups	199
7	Making pairs and groups	199
8	Keeping pair work and group work interesting	203
9	Encouraging quieter learners to speak in pairs or groups	207
10	Monitoring pair and group work	211
11	Encouraging students to use English	214
12	Allocating group-participant roles	219
13	Justifying pair and group work to students	223
	The world	226
14	Interaction beyond the classroom walls	226
6	Establishing and maintaining appropriate behaviour	231
1	Setting the stage for positive behaviour	231
2	Dealing with small disruptions	236
3	Serious discipline issues	241

7 Lessons	246
1 Starting lessons	246
2 Using the board	251
3 The coursebook	258
4 Time and pace	262
5 Handouts	266
6 Low-tech resources	270
7 Working with computers	274
8 Post-task	280
9 Closing lessons	284
10 Closing courses	292
Classroom management booklist	298
Index	300