

Contents

Preface	xi
Chronology of Major Works Cited or Discussed	xv
A Note on the Text	xvii
 Introduction: Strindberg as a Modern Poet	 1
Part I: Poems in Verse and Prose : The Romantic Compromise between "Kalvstek" and "Rosor"	 11
1. Genesis	13
2. "Youth and Ideals": The Romantic Follower and His Failings	23
3. "Wound Fever": Anti-Idealist Romanticism	27
4. "High Summer": Strindberg and the Poetry of Nature	42
5. "Exile" and "Tempests"	57
6. Retrospect	70
 Part II: From Doubt to Dream: Sleepwalker Nights on Waking Days	 73
7. The First Four "Nights"	75
8. "The Fifth Night" (1889): Symbolism and the Origins of Strindberg's Mythopoesis	 105
 Part III: Word Play and Minor Art : Mythopoesis and the Poesis of Tragedy	 115
9. Strindberg in the 1890s	117
10. "Street Images": Symbolism and Myth	125
11. "Cloud Images," "Thundershower," "The Dutchman": Strindberg's Mythopoeic Associationism	 132
12. "The City Journey": Strindberg's Epic Vision	140

13. "Trinity Sunday Night": "Chrysáētos" and the Implications of Strindberg's Tragic Eros	154
Conclusion: Strindberg and Modernity	167
Bibliography	173