

Table of Contents

Preface (by Taizo Nishimuro) iii

Introduction

Toward the Abe Statement on the 70th anniversary of the end of World War II 1

I

How should we view the path the world and Japan
took during the 20th century? What are the lessons
we should draw from the experiences in the 20th century? 9

Reports

How should we view the path the world and Japan took during the 20th century? What are the lessons we should draw from the experiences in the 20th century?
Shinichi Kitaoka
President, International University of Japan 12

Lessons from the 20th century: From the perspective of international law
Naoya Okuwaki
Professor, Meiji University, Law School; Professor Emeritus,
The University of Tokyo; former President, Japanese Society of International Law 20

II

What is the path that Japan has taken in the 70 years since the war's end in light of the lessons learned from the 20th century? In particular, how should the commitment to peace, economic development and international contributions by postwar Japan be evaluated?	53
---	----

Reports

The path Japan has taken over the 70 years since the war's end: From the perspective of "Japan within a global context"
Akihiko Tanaka
President, Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)	57

Japan's security arrangements 70 years since the end of World War II and its path forward: A personal opinion
Yukio Okamoto
President, Okamoto Associates, Inc.	70

III

Seventy years of reconciliation with the United States, Australia, and Europe	97
---	----

Reports

The path of reconciliation Japan has taken with the United States over the 70 years since the war's end
Fumiaki Kubo
Professor, The University of Tokyo Faculty of Law	101

A retrospective assessment of the 20th century and Japan's path toward reconciliation: Focusing on the perspective of the UK
Yuichi Hosoya
Professor, Keio University Faculty of Law	110

IV

Seventy years of reconciliation with China, the Republic of Korea, and other Asian countries 147

Reports

Japan-China relations in the 20th century and over the 70 years since the war's end
Shin Kawashima
Professor, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences,
The University of Tokyo 151

The path of reconciliation that Japan has followed with the Republic of Korea over the 70 years since the war's end
Shunji Hiraiwa
Professor, Kwansei Gakuin University 170

The history of Asia and Japan in the modern period
Takashi Shiraishi
President, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies 183

V

What is our vision of Asia and the world of the 21st century, drawing on the lessons learned from the 20th century? What are the contributions that Japan should make? What are the specific measures that Japan should take on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the end of World War II? 209

Reports

The future will change the past: The 70 years since the war's end within the context of history
Masayuki Yamauchi
Professor Emeritus, The University of Tokyo;
Professor, Meiji University 213

A vision for the 21st-century world and Japan's contributions: Universalization and regionality Masashi Haneda Professor, The University of Tokyo	223
Report of the Advisory Panel on the History of the 20th Century and on Japan's Role and World Order in the 21st Century	251
Statement by Prime Minister Shinzo Abe	309
Profiles of the members of the Advisory Panel on the History of the 20th Century and on Japan's Role and the World Order in the 21st Century and expert resource persons	317
III
Seventy years of reflection: Japan's path toward the 21st century, drawing on the lessons learned from the 20th century? What are the contributions that Japan should make? What are the specific measures that Japan should take on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the end of World War II? Pamiaki Kubo Professor, The University of Tokyo	317
IV
Seventy years of reflection: Japan's path toward the 21st century, drawing on the lessons learned from the 20th century? What are the contributions that Japan should make? What are the specific measures that Japan should take on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the end of World War II? Masayuki Yamawaki Professor Emeritus, The University of Tokyo	317
V
What is our vision of Asia and the world of the 21st century, drawing on the lessons learned from the 20th century? What are the contributions that Japan should make? What are the specific measures that Japan should take on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the end of World War II? Professor, Keio University Faculty of Law	317