

Content

Andrea Jochmanová	Preface	7
	In memoriam Bořivoj Srba	9
Jan Roubal	Introduction	11
	I. Theory of The Performance Analysis
Jan Roubal	The Polyphony of Contemporary Theory of Theatre	15
Mariusz Bartosiak	Autopoietic Emergence of Theatrical Event	19
Jan Císař	Staging as a Fictional World?	24
Erhard Ertel	Epidemic Misconceptions	29
Dagmar Inštorisová	The Theatrollogical Interpretation of Dramatic Work	39
Martina Musilová	Critical Analysis or Understanding Reflection	46
Krištof Jacek Kozak	The Re-Appearence of Tragedy in Contemporary Drama	51
Nina Vangeli	Understanding Choreographic Works through Dream Analysis	60
Michal Zetel	Video Tracking as a Tool for Performance Analysis	67
Daniela Pillgrab	Globalization as Method	73
Wojciech Baluch	The Dramaturg – Where Is the Author?	80
	II. The Performance Analysis in Praxis
Jana Wild	“Theatre of Shame or Shame for the Theatre?”	89
Josef Kovalčuk	The Phenomenon of Rozrazil (Speedwell), or a Play Which Found Its Time	95
Radka Kunderová	Challenging Hierarchies?	106
Honza Petružela	Versions of Alfréd Radok’s Game of Love and Death	113
Martin Pšenička	Nebeský’s Lear... Such a Nice Fairy Tale	120
Jitka Goriaux Pelechová	The “Sociological Theatre” of Thomas Ostermeier	127
Petr Oslzlý	Issues in the Reconstruction and Analysis of Bolek Polívka’s Authorial Production of Am a Ea (Am and Ea)	135
	Photos (P. Chodura)	144