

Contents

Preface	page vi
List of contributors	viii
Abbreviations	xi
Introduction Sebastian Harnisch and Hanns W. Maull	1
1 How civilian? How much power? Germany and the Eastern enlargement of NATO Henning Tewes	10
2 Germany at Maastricht – power politics or Civilian Power? Ulf Frenkler	26
3 Civilian Power and war: the German debate about out-of-area operations 1990–99 Nina Philippi	49
4 A Civilian Power caught between the lines: Germany and nuclear non-proliferation Oliver Meier	68
5 Civilian Power and human rights: the case of Germany Florian Pfeil	88
6 Germany's foreign policy, post-Kosovo: still a 'Civilian Power'? Hanns W. Maull	106
Conclusion: 'Learned its lesson well?' Germany as a Civilian Power ten years after unification Sebastian Harnisch and Hanns W. Maull	128
References	157
Index	176