

Contents

Acknowledgements.....9

Introduction

Petteri Laihonon, Anastassia Zabrodskaia & Marián Sloboda
What transition, which sociolinguistics?.....13

Part I: Minorities in the Russian Federation

Ekaterina Gruzdeva
Treasure Island at the turn of the millennium: The socioeconomic and sociolinguistic situation on Sakhalin, Russia .....29

Hèctor Alòs i Font
The Chuvash language in the Chuvash Republic: An example of the rapid decline of one of Russia’s major languages .....51

Nina Dobrushina
Multilingualism in highland Daghestan throughout the 20th century .....75

Part II: East Central Europe

Verena Mezger
Sociolinguistic transition in a former GDR region:
Multilingual Brandenburg and its challenges .....97

Krzysztof Przygoński
Political transformation as a trigger for a sociolinguistic revolution in post-socialist Poland: English and its rising power .....115

Marián Sloboda
Transition to super-diversity in the Czech Republic:
its emergence and resistance .....141

Attila Benő & János Péntek
Hungarians in Transylvania: Language policy and mainstream language ideologies in Romania.....185

Jelena Timotijević

The sociolinguistic transition of the discourse of nationalism in Serbia from Tito to neoliberal crash in the 2000s .....207

Part III: Baltic countries

Birute Klaas-Lang

State policies and institutional language choice: The vitality of Estonian, Latvian and Lithuanian in higher education .....235

Meilutė Ramonienė & Loreta Vilkienė

Changes in the social value of languages in urban areas of Lithuania, 1990–2010 .....263

Brigita Séguis

Post-Soviet multilingualism: Code-switching in the Polish community in Lithuania .....293

Kadri Koreinik

Multilingualism on the periphery: Valuing languages in south-eastern Estonia .....317

Part IV: Ukraine, a European republic of the former USSR

István Csernicskó & Viktória Ferenc

Transitions in the language policy of Ukraine (1989–2014) .....349

Olga Ivanova

Language situation in post-Soviet Kyiv: Ukrainian and Russian in the linguistic landscape and communicative practices .....379

Part V: Kazakhstan, a Central Asian country of the former USSR

Sholpan Zharkynbekova & Damira Akynova

Ethnic minorities in Kazakhstan: Analysis of language preferences
among high school students .....409

Sholpan Zharkynbekova & Aliya Aimoldina

The role of English language in the context of new language policy implementation in Kazakhstan .....435

Maganat Shegebayev
Linguistic diversity and business communication in today's Kazakhstan .....	459
Contributing Authors .....	473
Author Index .....	479
Subject Index .....	485