

Brief contents

About the authors	xvii
Foreword	xxiii
Preface	xxv
Publisher's acknowledgements	xxvii

Part 1 The context of public relations 1

1 Public relations origins: definitions and history	3
2 Public relations and the media	20
3 Digital and social media	35
4 Public relations and democracy	60
5 Community and society: corporate social responsibility (CSR)	74
6 Intercultural and multicultural context of public relations	97
7 Role of the public relations practitioner	111

Part 2 Public relations theories and concepts 145

8 Public relations theories: an overview	147
9 Strategic public relations planning and management	168
10 Public relations programme research and evaluation	196
11 Corporate image, reputation and identity	212
12 Public relations, propaganda and the psychology of persuasion	227
13 Public relations' professionalism and ethics	248

Part 3 Public relations specialisms 267

14 Media relations	269
15 Internal communication	286
16 Managing community involvement programmes	308
17 Issues management	330

18	Crisis public relations management	343
19	Public relations and the consumer	362
20	Business-to-business public relations	378
21	Public affairs	392
22	Public relations in the world of finance	412
23	Integrated marketing communications	426
24	Sponsorship	445
Part 4 Sectoral considerations		471
25	Non-government organisations and pressure groups	473
26	Corporate communication	492
27	Celebrity public relations	510
28	Strategic communication and social marketing in healthcare organisations	526
29	What next? Future issues for public relations	538
	Glossary	561
	Index	567